Rule 49

Conduct during voting

After the Chairman has announced the beginning of voting, no one shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of the voting.

Rule 50

Simple majority

Decisions of the Board shall be taken by a simple majority of the Members present and voting, except where otherwise specified in these Rules. For the purposes of determining the majority, only Members casting an affirmative or negative vote shall be counted as ‘present and voting’; Members who abstain from voting shall be considered as not voting.

Rule 51

Two-thirds majority

In the following cases a two-thirds majority of the Members present and voting is required:
– reconsideration of proposals (Rule 45);
– consultation by correspondence (Rule 60);
– amendment of Rules of Procedure (Rule 66);
– suspension of Rules of Procedure (Rule 67);
– establishment, before each session of the General Conference, of the list of States not Members of UNESCO which are to be invited to send observers to that session.

Rule 52

Show of hands

Voting shall normally be by show of hands. In this case, if there is any doubt concerning the result of a vote, the Chairman may take a second vote by show of hands or by roll-call.

Rule 53

Roll-call

At the request of any Member, a vote shall be taken by roll-call; Members’ names shall be called in alphabetical order and the vote of each Member participating shall be recorded in the summary record of the meeting.
Rule 54

Secret ballot

1. The nomination of a candidate for the post of Director-General shall be decided by secret ballot.
2. All other elections and decisions relating to individuals shall be voted on by secret ballot whenever five or more Members shall so request or if the Chairman shall so decide.

Rule 55

Conduct of voting by secret ballot

1. Before the vote begins, the Chairman shall appoint two tellers to scrutinize the votes cast.
2. When the counting of the votes is completed and the tellers have reported to the Chairman, he shall announce the results of the ballot bearing in mind that the voting will be recorded as follows:
   (a) From the total number of the Members of the Board will be deducted:
      – the number of Members absent, if any;
      – the number of blank ballot papers, if any;
      – the number of invalid ballot papers, if any.
   (b) The remaining number will constitute the number of votes recorded.
      The majority required will be more than half that number.
   (c) Those receiving a number of votes in favour, equal or superior to the majority required shall be declared elected.

Rule 56

Voting in elections

1. When a single elective place is to be filled, any candidate obtaining in the first ballot an absolute majority (i.e. more than half) of the votes cast shall be declared elected.
2. If no candidate obtains an absolute majority in the first ballot, further ballots shall be taken. Any candidate obtaining an absolute majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected. If, after four ballots have been taken, no candidate has obtained an absolute majority, a final ballot shall be taken, restricted to the two candidates who obtained the most votes in the fourth ballot. The candidate obtaining a majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected.
3. When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates obtaining in the first ballot an absolute majority of the votes cast shall be declared elected. If the number of candidates obtaining such a majority is less than the number of places to be filled, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not exceeding twice the number of places remaining to be filled.
4. If necessary, in order to determine the candidates to participate in a restricted ballot, an eliminating ballot may be taken restricted to the candidates having obtained the same number of votes in the previous ballot.

5. If, in the final ballot or an eliminating ballot, two or more candidates obtain the same number of votes, the Chairman shall decide between them by drawing lots.

Rule 57

Equally divided votes

If a vote is equally divided, in voting not concerned with elections, a second vote shall be taken after a suspension of the meeting. If there is still no majority in favour of the proposal, it shall be considered as lost.

XI. Special procedures

Rule 58

Nomination of Director-General
