OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS OF THE POST

Under the overall authority of the Assistant Director General for Culture (ADG/CLT) and the functional authority of the Director of the UNESCO Office in Dakar, and the direct supervision of the Programme Specialist for Culture, the incumbent will be responsible for programme and project work, advice, research and knowledge management, networking, partnerships and resource mobilization carried out under Major Programme IV – Culture, with an emphasis on the national perspective of Senegal to the Field Office and the Culture Sector (CLT) work as well as to multisectoral and cross country programmatic activities and initiatives conducted from the UNESCO Office in Dakar. The incumbent will work within the framework of UNESCO’s Medium Term Strategy (C/4s), the approved Programme and Budget (C/5) for Major Programme IV (Culture) and global development plans, notably the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. In this context, the incumbent will:

- Participate in the conceptualization, design, planning, development, coordination, monitoring and implementation of the Field Office’s Culture strategies and corresponding programmes, projects and activities. Identify entry points for culture and focus on areas within national priorities, and propose alignment of the latter with Culture priorities, at the national and regional levels, particularly for the promotion, preservation and safeguarding of tangible, intangible and movable heritage, as well as the promotion of the diversity of cultural expressions. Ensure programme alignment with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development building on the Culture-related entry points in the framework of the social, economic and environmental dimensions of sustainable development;

- Establish collaborative and influential partnerships with stakeholders and enhance UNESCO’s standing and influence with think-tank institutions, universities and research centers in the area of Culture. Liaise with colleagues of the Sector and other Sectors of UNESCO; support the efficient implementation of joint programme and project work and maintain close relations with local authorities, governmental and national professional organizations. Contribute to the development of national cultural policies. In this context, maintain strong working relations with relevant cultural institutions, as well as pertinent intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations;

- Contribute to resource mobilization for the country by developing concept notes and project proposals on the basis of situational analysis and needs assessments and in accordance with the C/5. Deal with UN Agencies seeking or marketing joint programmes, bilateral and multilateral partners, continental development Banks (e.g. ADB or others) and International Institutions. Prepare and follow up on submissions, coordinate donor meetings, including state of the art peer consultations. Prepare inputs and strive to generate extra budgetary projects and funding;

- Provide material to support the Programme Management Team (PMT) of UN Country Teams (UNCT) to organize, monitor and evaluate UNDAFs (UN Development Assistance Frameworks) and CPDs (country programme documents) in the light of cultural indicators and other relevant standard setting instruments prepared by the Sector. Ensure support to meetings, workshops and training hosted by UNESCO;

- Participate in UNDAF/Delivering as One planning and implementation, as well as in other joint collaborations with development partners.
