The General and Regional Histories count among UNESCO's major achievements.

They are the result of some forty years of international cooperation among 1,600 of the most renowned scholars from various regions of the world. Aimed at providing readers from different regions with deeper knowledge of our cultural and scientific heritage while promoting excellence in research, the Histories consist of a total of 51 volumes, presented in the following six collections:

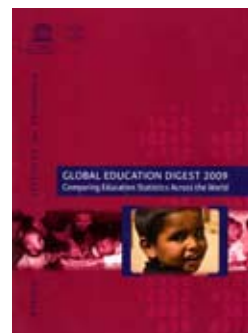

- History of Humanity
- General History of Africa
- History of Civilizations of Central Asia
- General History of Latin America (only in Spanish)
- The Different Aspects of Islamic Culture
- General History of the Caribbean

UNESCO World Heritage Desk Diary 2011

2010, € 15.00

The UNESCO World Heritage Desk Diary 2011 features a helpful week-at-a-glance design. It is illustrated with 79 colour photos of World Heritage sites, each accompanied by a short caption.

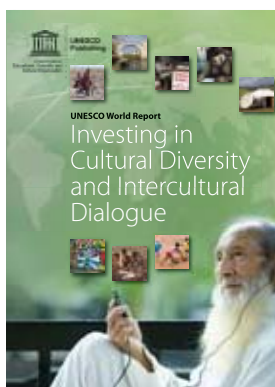

Global Education Digest 2009

Comparing Education Statistics Across the World

2009, € 25.00

The 2009 Global Education Digest (GED) presents a wide range of education indicators to assess progress towards Education for All and the Millennium Development Goals.

Investing in Cultural Diversity and Intercultural Dialogue

2010, € 30.00

Emphasizing the importance of cultural diversity in different areas (languages, education, communication and new media development, and creativity and the marketplace) based on data and examples collected from around the world, the report is also intended for the general public. It proposes a coherent vision of cultural diversity and clarifies how, far from being a threat, it can become beneficial to the action of the international community.

Tell me about series

2008, € 8.00

In just a few pages you can find out all you need to know about UNESCO living heritage, the World Heritage sites, oceans, biosphere reserves, climate and other subjects at the heart of the organization's work.

The World's Heritage: A Complete Guide to the Most Extraordinary Places

2009, € 24.00

A unique guide to every UNESCO World Heritage site. All 878 currently inscribed UNESCO World Heritage sites are described in this single volume of the World's Heritage, which is illustrated with over 650 stunning full-colour photographs.

Education for All Global Monitoring Report – 2010 Reaching the marginalized

2010, € 24.00

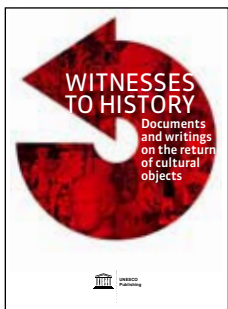

This is the eighth edition of the EFA Global Monitoring Report. The Report includes statistical indicators on all levels of education in some 200 countries and territories, and serves as an authoritative reference guide.

UNESCO: The Seeds of Peace

2008, € 24.40

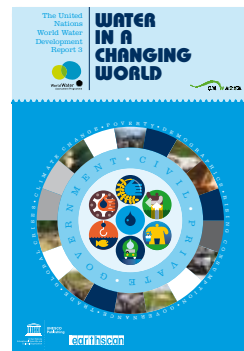

UNESCO has established its headquarters in a building that has become a landmark in Paris and a museum in itself. Paintings and sculptures have been integrated into the building plans. Donations received have enriched the art collection, making it a symbol of the cultural diversity incarnated by UNESCO.

Witnesses to History Documents and writings on the return of cultural objects

2009, € 25.00

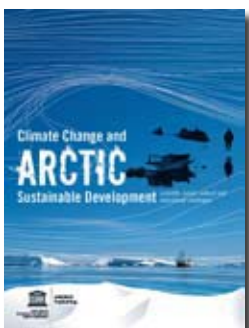

This compendium gives an outline of the historical, philosophical and ethical aspects of the return of cultural objects, citing past and present cases. The book bears testament to the ways in which peoples have lost their cultural heritage and analyses the issue of its return and restitution by providing a wide range of perspectives on the subject.

Water in a Changing World The United Nations World Water Development Report 3

2009, € 45.00

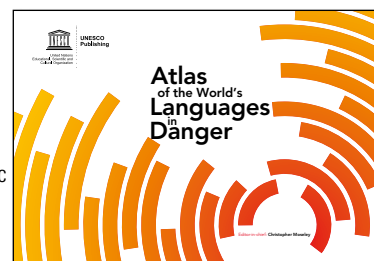

The news media are full of talk of crises – in climate change, energy, food and troubled financial markets. The challenges, though substantial, are not insurmountable.

Climate Change and Arctic Sustainable Development

2010, € 22.00

The Arctic is undergoing rapid and dramatic environmental and social transformations due to climate change. This book brings together the knowledge, concerns and visions of leading Arctic scientists in the natural and social sciences, prominent Chukchi, Even, Inuit and Saami leaders from across the circumpolar North, and international experts in education, health and ethics.

Atlas of the World's Languages in Danger

2010, € 28.00

Languages are not only tools of communication; they also reflect a view of the world. Languages are vehicles of value systems and cultural expressions and are an essential component of the living heritage of humanity. Yet, many of them are in danger of disappearing. UNESCO's Atlas of the World's Languages in Danger tries to raise awareness on language endangerment.
