 - (g) the Director of the ICTP or his/her representative, nominated by the Director-General of UNESCO
 - (h) the Director of the UNESCO Hanoi office or his/her representative, nominated by the Director-General of UNESCO

2. The Governing Board shall:
 - (a) approve the long-term and medium-term programmes of the Centre;
 - (b) approve the annual work plan of the Centre, including the staffing table;
 - (c) examine the annual reports submitted by the Director of the Centre, including a biennial self-assessment of the Centre's contribution to UNESCO's programme objectives;
 - (d) examine the periodic independent audit reports of the financial statements of the Centre and monitor the provision of such accounting records necessary for the preparation of financial statements;
 - (e) adopt the rules and regulations and determine the financial, administrative and personnel management procedures of the Centre in accordance with the laws of the country;

- (f) decide on the participation of regional intergovernmental organizations and international organizations in the work of the Centre.
3. The Governing Board shall meet in ordinary session at regular intervals, at least once every calendar year; it shall meet in extraordinary session if convened by its Chairperson, either on his or her own initiative or at the request of the Director-General of UNESCO or of two-thirds of its members. The costs related to the organisation of the International Governing Board meeting shall be covered by the Centre.
 4. The International Governing Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure. For its first meeting the procedure shall be established by the Government and UNESCO.
 5. The Director of the Centre shall participate in the meetings of the Governing Board, as a non-voting member.

Article 8 – UNESCO’s contribution

UNESCO has no financial obligations or accountability for the functioning and management of the Centre and shall not provide financial support.

Article 9 – Contribution of the Government

1. The Government shall provide all the resources, financial or in kind needed for the administration and proper functioning of the Centre.
2. The Government of Vietnam will allocate each year around 500,000 USD for the activity of the Centre.
3. The Government undertakes to:
 - (a) encourage Vietnamese institutions in collaboration with the Centre to make financial and/or in-kind contributions; and
 - (b) help the Centre to undertake various fund-raising activities from other national and international institutions/organizations; and

Article 10 – Participation

1. The Centre shall encourage the participation of Member States and Associate Members of UNESCO which, by their common interest in the objectives of the Centre, desire to cooperate with the Centre.
2. Member States and Associate Members of UNESCO wishing to participate in the Centre’s activities, as provided for under this Agreement, shall send to the Centre notification to this effect. The Director of the Centre shall inform the Government and UNESCO of the receipt of such notifications.

Article 11 - Responsibility

As the Centre is legally separate from UNESCO, the latter shall not be legally responsible for the acts or omissions of the Centre and shall also not be the subject to any legal process, and/or shall bear no liabilities of any kind, be they financial or otherwise, with the exception of the provisions expressly laid down in this Agreement.

Article 12 – Evaluation

1. UNESCO, may, at any time, carry out evaluation of the activities of the Centre in order to ascertain:
 - (a) whether the Centre makes a significant contribution to UNESCO's strategic programme objectives and expected results aligned with the four-year programmatic period of C/5 document (Programme and Budget) including the two global priorities of the Organization, and related sectoral or programme priorities and themes;
 - (b) whether the activities effectively pursued by the Centre are in conformity with those set out in this Agreement.
2. UNESCO shall for the purpose of the review of this Agreement conduct an evaluation of the contribution of the Centre to UNESCO strategic program objectives to be funded by the host country or the Centre.
3. UNESCO undertakes to submit to the Government, at the earliest opportunity, a report on any evaluation.
4. Following the results of an evaluation, each of the Parties shall have the option of requesting a revision of its contents or of denouncing the Agreement, as envisaged in Articles 16 and 17 below.

Article 13 – Use of UNESCO name and logo

1. The Centre may mention its affiliation with UNESCO and may therefore use after its title the mention: "under the auspices of UNESCO".
2. The Centre is authorized to use the UNESCO logo or a version thereof on its letter-headed paper and documents, including electronic documents and web pages, in accordance with the conditions established by the governing bodies of UNESCO scientifically.

Article 14 – Entry into force

This Agreement shall enter into force, following its signature by the Parties, when they have informed each other in writing that all the formalities required to that effect by the applicable laws and regulations of Vietnam and by UNESCO's internal regulations have been completed. The date of receipt of the last notification shall be deemed to be the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 15 – Duration

This Agreement is conducted for a period of six years as from its entry into force upon its signature by the two Parties. The Agreement shall be renewed upon common agreement between Parties once the Executive Board made its comments based on the results of the renewal assessment provided by the Director-General.

Article 16 – Denunciation

1. Each of the Parties shall be entitled to denounce this Agreement unilaterally.
2. The denunciation shall take effect within 30 days following receipt of the notification sent by one of the Parties to the other.

Article 17 - Revision

This Agreement may be revised by consent between the Government and UNESCO.

Article 18 – Settlement of disputes

1. Any dispute between the Government and UNESCO concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement, if not settled by negotiation or any other appropriate method agreed to by the Parties, shall be submitted for final decision to an arbitration tribunal composed of three members, one of whom shall be appointed by the Government, another by the Director-General of UNESCO, and a third, who shall preside over the tribunal, shall be chosen by the first two. If the two arbitrators cannot agree on the choice of a third, the appointment shall be made by the President of the International Court of Justice.
2. The tribunal's decision shall be final.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned being duly authorized thereto, have signed this Agreement,
