

● Opening of the EX LIBRIS HLOHOVEC celebration. Ceremonial receiving by Mayor of Hlohovec, held on 4th October 2007 at 16.00 in refectory of Homeland Museum. Mrs Helena Pekarovičová, an interpreter Mrs Andrea Gábrišová, the Mayor of Hlohovec PhDr. Ján Dlhopolček.

● The introducing of the 11th contest participants. From right: Mrs. Malíková and her pupils from Bratislava, Slovakia. Mrs. Jarmila Stojimirovič and other guests from Báčsky Petrovec, Kulpín, Hložany and Beograd, Serbia.

Non-profit organisation
EX LIBRIS AD PERSONAM HLOHOVEC

announces

12th international art contest
in creation of book plates for children aged from 6 to 15

EX LIBRIS HLOHOVEC

Theme:

"OLYMPIC GAMES"

● The second part of the ceremonial receiving - Magic surprises in the world of books - clown's performance. Solve the question, which children are from Slovakia and which ones are from abroad? Barriers /linguistic and any others/ vanish touching the art.

● Mr. Viktor Chrenko in the captivity of teachers during the workshop.

● Exhibitions EX LIBRIS HLOHOVEC - Magic World of Books and STILL LIFE from the Gallery of Young Peoples' Art Works Celje, Slovenia was opened by Ambassador of Slovenia in Slovak republic Mrs. Maja Lovrenčič - Svetek on 5th October 2007 at 15.30 in The Homeland Museum Gallery.

● Really strong competition. Children from Uherský Brod, Czech republic.

● The centre of the exhibition was a reading witch as a symbol of the magic of the world of books.

● Young talented Russians from Volgograd were working during the workshop under supervision of their teacher Mrs. Irina Khanko.

Used photos are from 11th year of the contest.

With the financial support of: International Visegrad Fund, Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic, Town Hall of Hlohovec, Slovak Commission for UNESCO, Tatra banka, Bekaert, a.s., Georgia-Pacific Slovakia s.r.o., Zentiva, a.s.