Ref.: CL/4106

Subject: Candidates for election to the UNESCO Executive Board

Sir/Madam.

In accordance with Rule 1 of the provisions governing the procedure for the election of Member States to the Executive Board, which are set out in Appendix 2 (part II) of the Rules of Procedure of the General Conference, the Part A (submission of the names of candidate States) of which is reproduced in Annex I to this letter, I have the honour to ask you to inform me, if possible by 21 September 2015, on whether your country intends to stand for election to the Executive Board at the 38th session of the UNESCO General Conference.*

I believe it would be appropriate to draw your attention to Article V of the Organization's Constitution, reproduced in Annex II to this letter, which defines the composition and functions of the UNESCO Executive Board. You also will find, in Annex III, the Member States currently on the Executive Board, listed by electoral group, together with the year of expiry of their term of office.

A provisional list of candidate Member States will be sent to you at the end of September. Subsequently, a revised list will be given to the Chairperson of the General Conference Nominations Committee, and to the heads of delegation at the opening of the 38th session of the General Conference.

Accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Irina Bokova Director-General

ANNEX I

PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE PROCEDURE FOR THE ELECTION OF MEMBER STATES TO THE EXECUTIVE BOARD: SUBMISSION OF THE NAMES OF CANDIDATE STATES

(Appendix 2 (Part II.A) of the Rules of procedure of the General Conference)

Rule 1

The Director-General shall ask each Member State, at least three months prior to the opening of any ordinary session of the General Conference, whether it intends to stand for election to the Executive Board. If so, its candidature must be sent to him or her at least six weeks, as far as possible, prior to the opening of the session, it being understood that candidate Member States may at the same time communicate to the other Member States and to the Director-General any information they consider relevant, including the name and curriculum vitae of the person they intend, if elected, to designate as their representative on the Board.

Rule 2

At least four weeks prior to the opening of the ordinary session of the General Conference the Director-General shall send Member States the provisional list of Member States candidates.

Rule 3

At the opening of the ordinary session of the General Conference the Director-General shall have drawn up and delivered to the Chairperson of the Nominations Committee and to each head of delegation a list of the Member States' candidatures that have been transmitted to him or her by that date.

Rule 4

Subsequent candidatures shall be admissible only if they reach the Secretariat of the General Conference at least forty-eight hours before the beginning of the ballot.

Rule 5

The Nominations Committee shall submit to the General Conference a list of all the Member States candidates, indicating the electoral group to which they belong and the number of seats to be filled in each electoral group.

ANNEX II

ARTICLE V OF THE CONSTITUTION OF UNESCO

Executive Board

A. Composition

- 1. (a) The Executive Board shall be elected by the General Conference and it shall consist of fifty-eight Member States. The President of the General Conference shall sit ex officio in an advisory capacity on the Executive Board.
 - (b) Elected States Members of the Executive Board are hereinafter referred to as "Members" of the Executive Board.
- 2. (a) Each Member of the Executive Board shall appoint one representative. It may also appoint alternates.
 - (b) In selecting its representative on the Executive Board, the Member of the Executive Board shall endeavour to appoint a person qualified in one or more of the fields of competence of UNESCO and with the necessary experience and capacity to fulfil the administrative and executive duties of the Board. Bearing in mind the importance of continuity, each representative shall be appointed for the duration of the term of the Member of the Executive Board, unless exceptional circumstances warrant his replacement. The alternates appointed by each Member of the Executive Board shall act in the absence of its representative in all his functions.
- 3. In electing Members to the Executive Board, the General Conference shall have regard to the diversity of cultures and a balanced geographical distribution.
- 4. (a) Members of the Executive Board shall serve from the close of the session of the General Conference which elected them until the close of the second ordinary session of the General Conference following their election. The General Conference shall, at each of its ordinary sessions, elect the number of Members of the Executive Board required to fill vacancies occurring at the end of the session.
 - (b) Members of the Executive Board are eligible for re-election. Re-elected Members of the Executive Board shall endeavour to change their representatives on the Board.
- 5. In the event of the withdrawal from the Organization of a Member of the Executive Board, its term of office shall be terminated on the date when the withdrawal becomes effective.

B. Functions

- 6. (a) The Executive Board shall prepare the agenda for the General Conference. It shall examine the programme of work for the Organization and corresponding budget estimates submitted to it by the Director-General in accordance with paragraph 3 of Article VI and shall submit them with such recommendations as it considers desirable to the General Conference.
 - (b) The Executive Board, acting under the authority of the General Conference, shall be responsible for the execution of the programme adopted by the Conference. In accordance with the decisions of the General Conference and having regard to circumstances arising

- between two ordinary sessions, the Executive Board shall take all necessary measures to ensure the effective and rational execution of the programme by the Director-General.
- (c) Between ordinary sessions of the General Conference, the Board may discharge the functions of adviser to the United Nations, set forth in Article IV, paragraph 5, whenever the problem upon which advice is sought has already been dealt with in principle by the Conference, or when the solution is implicit in decisions of the Conference.
- 7. The Executive Board shall recommend to the General Conference the admission of new Members to the Organization.
- 8. Subject to decisions of the General Conference, the Executive Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure. It shall elect its officers from among its Members.
- 9. The Executive Board shall meet in regular session at least four times during a biennium and may meet in special session if convoked by the Chairman on his initiative or upon the request of six Members of the Executive Board.
- 10. The Chairman of the Executive Board shall present, on behalf of the Board, to the General Conference at each ordinary session, with or without comments, the reports on the activities of the Organization which the Director-General is required to prepare in accordance with the provisions of Article VI.3(b).
- 11. The Executive Board shall make all necessary arrangements to consult the representatives of international organizations or qualified persons concerned with questions within its competence.
- 12. Between sessions of the General Conference, the Executive Board may request advisory opinions from the International Court of Justice on legal questions arising within the field of the Organization's activities.
- 13. The Executive Board shall also exercise the powers delegated to it by the General Conference on behalf of the Conference as a whole.
