

Tracking Impact
Case studies on the social science – policy nexus

	Abstracts & erratum
	Editorial
Erik de Gier, Roger Henke & Jacqueline Vijgen	“Knowledge Utilization” in Dutch social policy: The case of the Disability Insurance Act (WAO)
Charly Gabriel Mbock, Marie-Laure Ngo-Mpeck, Dorothée Kom & Joseph-Marie Zambo Belinga	Policy utilisation of research results in Cameroon
Ge Daoshun & Yang Tuan	Minimum income schemes for the unemployed: a case study from Dalian, China
Robert Klobucký & Katarína Strapcová	Knowledge utilization in public policy: the case of Roma population research in Slovakia
Virginia A. Miralao	A case study on the impact of social research on education policy and reform in the Philippines
Rano Ubaidullaieva	Sociological research and educational reform in Uzbekistan
Zdenek Uherek	Use of social science research on migration policy in the Czech Republic
Robyn Iredale, Tim Turpin & Charles Hawksley	Migration research and migration policy-making: a study of Australia, the Philippines and Thailand
Fred Carden	Issues in assessing the policy influence of research
Open Forum
Beatriz Kalinsky	Social anthropology in sensitive research contexts. A case study: State prisons, Province of Neuquén, Argentina
John Coakley	The organisational evolution of political science: the international dimension