All correspondence and/or request for information should be sent to this address.

3. Travel

Following receipt of the registration form, the organizers will contact each participant in order to specify the travel and visa modalities. UNESCO will cover the travel cost of a road trip ticket by the most direct route and at the most economic rate, and provide accommodation expenses in Saly during the meeting for one participant per country. A second Parliamentarian can participate in the work of the Conference, his travel and stay being on his own expense.

4. Welcome

The participants whose stay is not covered by UNESCO are invited to send their flight plan to the Organizers with a view to facilitating their welcome and transport from Dakar International Airport to the venue of the meeting.

5. Accommodation

The reservation at the Lamantin Beach Hotel will be made systematically by the Organizers after reception of the registration form. The participants, who wish to stay at another hotel, are requested to inform the Organizers of the name of the hotel beforehand. In that case the transport to the venue of the conference will not be provided.

6. Working language

The working languages of FAPED II proceedings will be English and French.
