

Session 9: Reporting back

Mapping the availability of data to monitor Education 2030 in Asia and the Pacific

South and West Asia

Day 2: 26 November, 2015

14:00-14:45 (45 minutes)

2. What are the main issues and challenges the sub-region might face in collecting data?

1. Coverage and availability of data

- Frequencies
- Poor data quality
- More problem on Skills and Learning assessments and Literacy

2. Capacity

- Individual
- Systematic
- Materials
- Technology

3. Quality of data

- Reliability
- Authenticity

4. Enabling environment

- Security
- Decentralization
- Retention of the staff

3. What are solutions to overcome these issues and challenges?

- 1. Political commitments
- 2. Identifying core and flexible indicators – different schedule for reporting
- 3. Use of technology
- 4. Capacity Building at national and sub national
 - Data collection, Compilation, Production, Use of data, and Developing technical guidelines
- 5. Focus on developing Institution – robust MIS system
 - Within country
 - South-South coordination e. g. KEDI, SAARC
 - Technical support
- 6. Coordination
 - Within countries with relevant ministries, NSO, CSO
 - Among countries for sharing the best practices
- 7. Resources