The Tenth Asian Bioethics Conference

of the Asian Bioethics Association

Bioethics in Asia:
Bringing Ethics into Practice

Organized by the Medical Ethics and History of Medicine Research Center, Tehran University of Medical Sciences in Collaboration with the Asian Bioethics Association and UNESCO.
This is also the Fourth UNESCO Asia-Pacific School of Ethics Roundtable

First Call for papers

The Organizers of the Tenth Asian Bioethics Conference, to be held in Tehran, Iran, 26-29 April 2009, invite you to participate and submit abstracts with research findings, discussion papers, and other contributions dealing with topics in bioethics and related disciplines. The language of the conference will be English.

Papers are invited on, but not limited to, the following themes:

- Asian Bioethics
- Cross-cultural Bioethics
- Islamic Bioethics
- Biomedical and Biosciences Ethics
- Ethical Issues in Medicine
- Ethical Issues in Biomedical Research
- Ethical Issues in Organ Transplantation
- Neuro-ethics
- Public Health Ethics
- Ethics in Disaster Management
- Environmental Ethics
- Ethics of Emerging Technologies
- Nanoethics
- Ethics and Intellectual Property
- Bioethics Education
- Medical Ethics Education
- Science and Society
- Ethics, Technology and Culture

Conference website: http://abc10iran.tums.ac.ir/

Abstracts and all correspondence are to be sent email to <abc10iran@tums.ac.ir>.

Please submit abstracts by 30 January 2009. The abstracts will be reviewed by the International Advisory Panel of the Asian Bioethics Association. Notification of acceptance of abstracts will be made by 28 February, 2009. Requests for accommodation bookings, assistance to obtain travel visas, and optional tours pre or post conference in Iran should also be made to <abc10iran@tums.ac.ir>.

Conference fee: 150 USD for non-ABA member; For ABA member; 100 USD (ABA membership through www.eubios.info/ABA. Registration fee can be paid on-site.

Hotel accommodation can be booked at the Hotel Laleh (details on the website).