5. Pedagogy of Love

Love

Education

Kaizen of Love

Love

Love for self

Love for family

Love for others

Love for a lover

Love for one's country

Material love

Spiritual love

Plutonic love

Love in Life

People are not only thinking or willing creatures but loving creatures.

Kant

Love, faith, hope, humility and critical thinking are the pillars of a democratic dialogue.

Paulo Freire

A True revolutionary is motivated by great feelings of love.

Che Guevara

Love in Education

Education and teaching that aims at bringing out personalities cannot succeed without a loving attitude.

Martti Haavio (1948).

The perfect knowledge is only possible through love.

Erich Fromm (1994)

It is impossible to teach without the courage of love, the courage to fail and still get up.

Thomas Merton in "Seven Stores Mountain"

Kaizen of Love

Love for the learner
Love for the content
Love for the school
Love for colleagues
Love for administrators

Kaizen = TQM

Pedagogical Love

Pedagogical love is to aim at the discovery of pupils' strengths and interests and act, based on these, to strengthen students' self-esteem and self-image as active learners.

Teachers Role

Pedagogical love in learning emerges through:

Teacher's Attitude
Teacher's Emotions
Teachers Actions

Teachers Role

But

When a teacher cares

It shows in the attitude

When a teacher is concerned

It shows in the emotions

When a teacher loves

It shows in the actions

Circle of Pedagogical Love

Manifestation of love

Respect, Empathy, self esteem, emotion, caring, values, humility,
responsibility, encouraging attitude,
passion, courage, faith, hope

Thus it can be safely said that “The Heart of Education is the Education of the Heart”

Love Pedagogists Beware!

Teachers who hold a more humanistic view for the purpose of education often experience stress because the meaning they assign to education differs greatly from the meaning assigned by their institution or policy makers.

Non-Love Pedagogists Beware!
