

Format for describing your motivation if you wish to apply for an NFP fellowship.

If you wish to be considered for nomination of NFP fellowship, you are requested to answer 3 questions in your motivation. The answer to each question should be between 50-1000 characters.

You have to take utmost care that your personal motivation is unique. It should differ from what others may write and should make impression on UNESCO-IHE and the embassy. Do not copy text from others, but write your own personal motivation. It should be in such a way that the reader cannot avoid giving high evaluation to your application.

Please answer the questions below (each question requires a different and unique answer):

- 1) What is the issue or problem you want to address in your country? (50-1000 characters)
- 2) How will this course enable you to address this issue? (50-1000 characters)
- 3) How will you address this issue with your position within your organisation? (50-1000 characters)

When you answer these 3 questions take into account that the answers will be evaluated by UNESCO-IHE and by the embassy for a possible nomination/award of a scholarship! It is therefore very important that you pay utmost attention to the answering of these questions. Herewith we inform you how the questions will be evaluated, so that you can pay attention to this in your answer.

- 1) To what extent is the description of the problem outlined specific and relevant?
 - What: What do I wish to accomplish?
 - Why: Specific reasons, purpose or benefits of accomplishing the goal.
 - Who: Who is involved?
 - Where: Identify a location.
 - Which: Identify requirements and constraints
- 2) To what extent is the description of how the chosen programme can contribute to solving the problem outlined specific, achievable and relevant? Look at:
 - Measurability
 - Realistic timeframe of implementation
 - Relevance
 - Achievability
- 3) To what extent is the motivation in accordance with mission, activities and ambitions of the employer?
- 4) To what extent does the candidate have a clear idea about the period after the study?

If you belong to an NFP eligible country, please send us your motivation by e-mail, in which you answer these 3 questions and in which you pay attention to these questions.

Take into account:

- 1) The reply to each question does not exceed 1000 characters
- 2) How the answers to the questions will be evaluated.
