

5th meeting of SACAM network held in Islamabad

Islamabad, 27 November 2013:

UNESCO and Pakistan Science Foundation (PSF) jointly organized, the 5th meeting of the South and Central Asia MAB Network (SACAM) in Islamabad.

Officials and representatives of the ministry for science and technology, PSF, UNESCO and representatives from the member states along with Pakistani conservationists, scientists, and environmentalists participated in the meeting.

During the two day meeting on 26/27 November 2013, participants have discussed on various themes including SACAM progress and future plans, harmonization of community livelihoods with biodiversity conservation in the context of biosphere reserves, new trends in Man and Biosphere Reserves (BRs) and progress in member countries, biodiversity and emerging global issues in BRs as well as country presentations, networking session and group discussion on strengthening SACAM Network.

