

WSIS Forum 2011
UNESCO HL Debate on The Right to Communication
18 May 2011, 9.00 a.m. – 11.15 a.m.
Conference Centre of the ILO, Room II

Agenda

Chair: John Crowley, Chief of Section, Ethics of Science and Technology, Sector of Social and Human Sciences, UNESCO

9:00	Opening Remarks
9:05	Social Transformation and the Right to Communication
10'	Mark Coeckelbergh	University of Twente, Netherlands
9:10	15 minute discussion
9:25	Posthuman Aspects of Society and Technology
10'	Denisa Kera	National University of Singapore
9:35	15 minute discussion
9:50	Rights, Responsibilities, and ICTs
10'	Nermine El Saadany	Director, International Relations Division, Ministry of Communications and Information Technology, Cairo, Egypt
10:00	15 minute discussion
10:15	Trends and Challenges: Tracking the Changing Legal and Regulatory Ecology Shaping Freedom of Expression Online
10'	Victoria Nash	Research and Policy Fellow at the Oxford Internet Institute, University of Oxford, UK
10:25	15 minute discussion
10:40	ICTs and Good Practices: Citizenship, Policy, and the State
10'	Slim Amamou	Secretary of State for Youth & Sports, Tunisia. Member of Internet Engineering Task Force and the World Wide Web Consortium. Blogger, Cyber-activist.
10:50	15 minute discussion with Remote Participation
11:05	Round Table Debate and Discussion

Contacts:

John Crowley (j.crowley@unesco.org), Chief of Section, Ethics of Science and Technology, Sector of Social and Human Sciences, UNESCO.

Xianhong Hu (x.hu@unesco.org), Communication and Information Sector, UNESCO.