The Secretary-General of the United Nations presents his compliments to the Permanent Representatives of Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to refer to General Assembly resolution 67/289 of 9 July 2013, entitled “The United Nations in global economic governance”.

In paragraph 20 of the resolution, the Assembly requests the Secretary-General “to submit to the General Assembly at its seventy-first session a report on the implementation of the present resolution, exploring options and ideas for continuing interaction between the United Nations and intergovernmental groupings, to be prepared in consultation with Member States and relevant organizations of the United Nations system, taking into account the post 2015 development agenda and the follow-up processes to all major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social and related fields, as appropriate”.

Accordingly, the Secretary-General would be grateful if the views of the Governments of Member States on the issue of the United Nations in global economic governance could be communicated, by 29 July 2016, to the following address:
