The Secretary-General of the United Nations presents his compliments to the Permanent Representative of ... to the United Nations and has the honour to refer to General Assembly resolution 65/94 of 8 December 2010, entitled “The United Nations in global governance”.

In paragraph 3 of the same resolution, the Assembly requests the Secretary-General “to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-sixth session an analytical report focusing on global economic governance and development, to be prepared in consultation with Member States and relevant organizations of the United Nations system, taking into account such relevant inputs as the informal thematic debate on global governance to be organized by the President of the General Assembly, without prejudice to the focus of possible future debates on this issue to be determined by the General Assembly”.

Accordingly, the Secretary-General would appreciate it if the views of His/Her Excellency’s Government on the issue of global economic governance and development would be communicated by 29 April 2011 to the following address:
