GENERAL INTRODUCTION

The present volume constitutes the fifth supplement to the Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council, 1946-1951, which was issued in 1954. It covers the proceedings of the Security Council from the 1271st meeting on 1 February 1966 to the 1462nd meeting on 31 December 1968. Further supplements covering the proceedings of later meetings will be issued at suitable intervals.

In order to make it easier to trace the Security Council's practice in respect of any given topic over the entire period covered by the six volumes, the headings under which the practices and procedures of the Security Council were presented in the original volume have been generally maintained unchanged in this supplement. New headings have been inserted where required. Topics which the Council has not discussed anew during this time are identified by double asterisks.

The methods employed and the principles observed in the preparation of this supplement have been the same as for the original volume of the Repertoire. They are explained in the General Introduction to that volume. The Repertoire is an expository work, which presents the results of an empirical survey of the procedures of the Council in a way calculated to make reference easy, and constitutes essentially a guide to the proceedings of the Council.

As was observed in the original volume, the Repertoire is not intended as a substitute for the records of the Security Council, which constitute the only comprehensive and authoritative account of its deliberations. The categories employed to arrange the material are not intended to suggest the existence of procedures or practices which have not been clearly or demonstrably established by the Council itself. The Security Council is at all times, within the framework of the Charter, "master of its own procedure". The object of the Repertoire will have been achieved if the reader, by using the descriptive titles of the headings under which the material is presented, is enabled to find relevant proceedings in order to draw conclusions for himself concerning the practice of the Council.

Details of the decisions of the Council have been included where appropriate in the accounts of its proceedings which make up this volume. The term "decision" has again been used to mean not only those "decisions" to which specific reference is made in the text of Articles of the Charter, but all significant steps decided upon by the Council, whether by vote or otherwise, in the course of consideration of a question.

The reader should refer for full explanations of the organization and presentation of material to the explanatory matter in the original volume. An effort has been made to avoid unnecessary repetition of such explanations in this Supplement.

EDITORIAL NOTE

1. References to the records of the meetings of the Security Council are given in the following form:

1273rd meeting, para. 27; for Official Records;
1388th meeting (PV), pp. 17-20; for provisional verbatim records.

2. Documents of the Security Council are identified by the serial number in the S/series. Where the mimeographed document has been printed in the supplements to the Official Records, an additional reference is given accordingly.

Example:

S/8886, OR, 23rd yr., Suppl. for Oct.-Dec. 1968, pp. 112-113.

For documents printed only in the Official Records of meetings, reference is given to the meeting and page.

Example:

S/8603, 1428th meeting (PV), pp. 23-25.

Where reference is given only to the number of S/series, this indicates that the text is available as a mimeographed document only.

3. References to resolutions of the Security Council, published in yearly volumes of Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, follow the system adopted in 1964 and applied in the 1964-1965 Supplement. They are identified by number, followed by the year of adoption in parentheses.

Example:

Resolution 249 (1968).

4. References to the Official Records of the General Assembly and their supplements are given in the following form:

GAOR, 23rd sess., plen. m., 1752nd meeting, para. 3;
GAOR, 23rd sess., Suppl. No. 9 (A/7209/Rev.1), p. 5.

For resolutions of the General Assembly:
Resolution 2393 (XXIII).

5. References from one chapter of the Repertoire to other chapters are in the following form:

See chapter XI, Case 3.

References to other cases in the same chapter are in the following form:

See Case 5.

6. In citing statements in case histories, it has been considered necessary at certain points to distinguish between statements made by representatives on the Council and statements by representatives or other persons invited to participate. In such instances, an asterisk has been inserted to distinguish the latter.

7. The original volume of the Repertoire should be cited as Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council, 1946-1951. The present volume should be cited as Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council, Supplement 1966-1968.

8. The designations employed and the presentation of the material in this publication do not imply the expression of any opinion whatsoever on the part of the Secretariat of the United Nations concerning the legal status of any country or territory or of its authorities, or concerning the delimitation of its frontiers.

9. Appended here below is a list of short and official titles for agenda items considered by the Security Council throughout the period 1966-1968. The short titles were formulated exclusively for the Repertoire in order to clarify for the reader the contents of the item under consideration. Hence they have no official standing.
