

8. The situation in Guinea-Bissau

During the period under review, the Security Council held eight meetings relating to the situation in Guinea-Bissau and adopted three resolutions. By resolutions 2157 \(2014\), 2186 \(2014\) and 2203 \(2015\), the Council thrice renewed the mandate of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in Guinea-Bissau (UNIOGBIS)<sup>30</sup> for periods of three months, six months and one year, respectively. The last extension was from 1 March 2015 until 29 February 2016.<sup>31</sup>

During 2014 and 2015, the Council was briefed by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Guinea-Bissau and the Chair of the Guinea-Bissau configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission, respectively, regarding the presidential and legislative elections in 2014, the institutional and socio-economic challenges that the country faced while emerging from conflict, and the need for the continuous engagement of the international community, in particular the donors. All substantive Council discussion on the situation in Guinea-Bissau took place in consultations, with the main focus on the restoration of constitutional order in the country, underpinned, in particular, by the holding of successful elections. Other important issues discussed included reform and strengthening of state institutions, the need for inclusive political dialogue, socio-economic development and the fight against impunity and drug trafficking.<sup>32</sup>

Regarding the sanctions regime imposed by resolution 2048 \(2012\),<sup>33</sup> the Council invited the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of UNIOGBIS to share all relevant information with the Committee<sup>34</sup> established pursuant to resolution 2048 \(2012\), particularly names of individuals who met the sanctions criteria particularly
