

22. Letter dated 13 April 2014 from the Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2014/264)

The agenda item entitled “Letter dated 13 April 2014 from the Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2014/264)” was introduced after the Russian Federation requested to convene an emergency meeting of the Security Council to consider “the alarming developments” in Ukraine.

During the period under review, the Council held five meetings in connection with this agenda item and heard briefings by senior officials of the Organization on the situation on the ground, addressing political, security and humanitarian conditions. The Council condemned the acts of violence reported in eastern Ukraine, called on the de-escalation of tensions and urged the parties to find a peaceful solution to the crisis through political dialogue. Many Council members expressed their concern at the deteriorating humanitarian situation in the Donetsk and Luhansk regions and urged the relevant agencies to remain engaged until the situation in eastern Ukraine stabilized.

On 17 February 2015, expressing its grave concern at the tragic events and violence in eastern regions of Ukraine, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 2202 \(2015\). By this resolution, the Council endorsed the “Package of measures for the Implementation of the Minsk Agreements” adopted in Minsk on 12 February 2015, and called on all parties to implement these measures, including a comprehensive ceasefire. In addition, the Council reaffirmed resolution 2166 \(2014\) regarding the downing of flight MH17 and made references to the sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of Ukraine.⁸³
