

THEMATIC ISSUES

26. United Nations peacekeeping operations

During the period under review, the Security Council held seven meetings and adopted two resolutions and one presidential statement in connection with the item entitled “United Nations peacekeeping operations”.

At the meetings, the Council discussed several themes, including new trends in peacekeeping, the evolution of regional partnerships, and the role of policing in peacekeeping, especially with regard to the protection of civilians. New trends considered by the Council included the establishment of more robust and multidimensional mandates, inter-mission cooperation and the use of new technologies.

With regard to the report of the Secretary-General entitled “The Future of United Nations Peace Operations: Implementation of the Recommendations of the High-Level Panel on Peace Operations”⁹⁷ and of recommendations of the report of the High-Level Independent Panel on Peace Operations⁹⁸, the Council adopted two Presidential Statements. The first statement was adopted on 25 November 2015 under the item entitled “Maintenance of International Peace and Security.”⁹⁹ In the second statement, which was adopted on 31 December 2015 under the item entitled “United Nations peacekeeping operations”, the Council noted the view of the panel and the Secretary-General that the lack of effective dialogue through consultations between the Council, troop- and police-contributing countries, and the Secretariat had “generated frustration on all sides and undermined mandate implementation”.¹⁰⁰

The Council also heard briefings by several Force Commanders and Police Commissioners of peacekeeping operations regarding the challenges they faced in the field.
