

35. Security Council mission

During the period under review, the Security Council completed four missions in which members of the Council visited the field. The destinations of the missions included several African countries,¹¹⁸ as well as Belgium, the Netherlands (The Hague) and Haiti. The missions included representatives of all members of the Council. The Council held four meetings under the item entitled “Security Council mission”, in which it was briefed by the heads of the missions on their findings in those countries.

The table below lists the meetings held in consideration of the Security Council mission and related information, including invitees and speakers.¹¹⁹

¹¹⁸ Mali; Central African Republic; Ethiopia (Addis Ababa, with the African Union); Burundi; South Sudan; and Somalia.

¹¹⁹ For more information on the composition and reports of the missions, see part VI, sect. II. A. (table 2) with regard to Security Council missions.
