Central African region – UNOCA SG reports

Letter from PSC of 30 August 2010 (S/2010/457)

“I have the honour to inform you that your letter dated 11 December 2009 (S/2009/697) concerning your intention to establish a United Nations regional office for Central Africa in Libreville has been brought to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

They take note of the information contained in your letter and welcome the intention expressed therein. They believe that it would be appropriate for the proposed office to be established for an initial period of two years, with a review of its mandate after 18 months. They would welcome regular information from you about the activities of the office, once established, and its impact on the ground. They would welcome receiving an initial report six months after the office becomes fully operational.”

Central African region – SG report on both UNOCA and the LRA

S/PRST/2011/21 14 November 2011

AFRICA

Central African region – UNOCA SG reports

Letter from PSC of 30 Aug. 2010 (S/2010/457)

I have the honour to inform you that your letter dated 11 December 2009 (S/2009/697) concerning your intention to establish a United Nations regional office for Central Africa in Libreville has been brought to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

They take note of the information contained in your letter and welcome the intention expressed therein. They believe that it would be appropriate for the proposed office to be established for an initial period of two years, with a review of its mandate after 18 months. They would welcome regular information from you about the activities of the office, once established, and its impact on the ground. They would welcome receiving an initial report six months after the office becomes fully operational.

Relationship between the UN and regional organizations, in particular the AU, in the maintenance of international peace and security

S/PRST/2007/7 of 28 March 2007

Last para.: “Emphasizing the primacy of the Security Council in the maintenance of international peace and security the Security Council stresses the importance of supporting and improving in a sustained way the resource base and capacity of the African Union. In this regard the Security Council requests the Secretary-General to provide a report, in consultation with the relevant regional organizations, in particular the African Union, on specific proposals on how the United Nations can better support arrangements for further cooperation and coordination with regional organizations on Chapter VIII arrangements in order to contribute significantly to the common security challenges in the areas of concern and to promote the deepening and broadening of dialogue and cooperation between the Security Council and the Peace and Security Council of the African Union.”

UN peacekeeping operations – progress review and SG report

S/PRST/2010/2 of 27 August 2011

Last para.: “The Council commits to making progress on the issue of more meaningful engagement with Troop Contributing Countries and Police Contributing Countries and to reviewing progress in 2012.”

S/PRST/2011/2 of 21 January 2011

Last para.: “The Security Council looks forward to the report of the international review of civilian capacity in early 2011, recognizing the need for improved mechanisms for timely deployment of skilled civilian experts in support of national institution building needs in post-conflict countries. The Council requests the Secretary-General to include in the next follow-up report on peacebuilding in the immediate aftermath of conflict an assessment of the impact that his agenda for action has had in contributing to building viable institutions in post-conflict countries, as well as additional recommendations to improve the effectiveness of the United Nations` contribution to more effective, stable and sustainable institutions that can help prevent a relapse into conflict.”

UN peacekeeping operations – TCC & PCC

S/PRST/2011/17 of 26 August 2011
