
Past issues

From 1949 to the end of 1958, this Journal appeared under the name of International Social Science Bulletin. Past issues may be purchased from Blackwell Publishers Ltd, 108 Cowley Road, Oxford OX4 1JF, United Kingdom, or from UNESCO Archives, Electronic Management of Documents and Microform Unit, 7 Place de Fontenoy, 75352 Paris 07 SP France. Fax 33 (0) 1 45 68 56 17. Email: microfiches@unesco.org

Microfilms and microfiches are available from Bell & Howell Information and Learning, 300 N. Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106 (United States). Reprint series are available from Kraus Reprint Corporation, 16 East 46th Street, New York, NY 10017 (United States). Articles are available through The Genuine Article, Institute for Scientific Information, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104 (United States). Microfiches can also be obtained from UNESCO, Archives, address as above.

Vol. XI, 1959

- No. 1. Social aspects of mental health*
- No. 2. Teaching of the social sciences in the USSR*
- No. 3. The study and practice of planning*
- No. 4. Nomads and nomadism in the arid zone*

Vol. XII, 1960

- No. 1. Citizen participation in political life*
- No. 2. The social sciences and peaceful co-operation*
- No. 3. Technical change and political decision*
- No. 4. Sociological aspects of leisure*

Vol. XIII, 1961

- No. 1. Post-war democratization in Japan*
- No. 2. Recent research on racial relations*
- No. 3. The Yugoslav commune*
- No. 4. The parliamentary profession*

Vol. XIV, 1962

- No. 1. Images of women in society*
- No. 2. Communication and information*
- No. 3. Changes in the family*
- No. 4. Economics of education*

Vol. XV, 1963

- No. 1. Opinion surveys in developing countries*
- No. 2. Compromise and conflict resolution*
- No. 3. Old age*
- No. 4. Sociology of development in Latin America*

Vol. XVI, 1964

- No. 1. Data in comparative research*
- No. 2. Leadership and economic growth*
- No. 3. Social aspects of African resource development*
- No. 4. Problems of surveying the social science and humanities*

Vol. XVII, 1965

- No. 1. Max Weber today/Biological aspects of race*
- No. 2. Population studies*
- No. 3. Peace research*
- No. 4. History and social science*

Vol. XVIII, 1966

- No. 1. Human rights in perspective*
- No. 2. Modern methods in criminology*
- No. 3. Science and technology as development factors*
- No. 4. Social science in physical planning*

Vol. XIX, 1967

- No. 1. Linguistics and communication*
- No. 2. The social science press*
- No. 3. Social functions of education*
- No. 4. Sociology of literary creativity*

Vol. XX, 1968

- No. 1. Theory, training and practice in management*
- No. 2. Multi-disciplinary problem-focused research*
- No. 3. Motivational patterns for modernization*
- No. 4. The arts in society*

Vol. XXI, 1969

- No. 1. Innovation in public administration
- No. 2. Approaches to rural problems*
- No. 3. Social science in the Third World*
- No. 4. Futurology*

Vol. XXII, 1970

- No. 1. Sociology of science*
- No. 2. Towards a policy for social research*
- No. 3. Trends in legal learning*
- No. 4. Controlling the human environment*

Vol. XXIII, 1971

- No. 1. Understanding aggression
- No. 2. Computers and documentation in the social sciences*
- No. 3. Regional variations in nation-building*
- No. 4. Dimensions of the racial situation*

Vol. XXIV, 1972

- No. 1. Development studies*
- No. 2. Youth: a social force? *
- No. 3. The protection of privacy*
- No. 4. Ethics and institutionalization in social science*

Vol. XXV, 1973

- No. 1/2. Autobiographical portraits*
- No. 3. The social assessment of technology*
- No. 4. Psychology and psychiatry at the cross-roads*

Vol. XXVI, 1974

- No. 1. Challenged paradigms in international relations*
- No. 2. Contributions to population policy*
- No. 3. Communicating and diffusing social science*
- No. 4. The sciences of life and of society*

Vol. XXVII, 1975

- No. 1. Socio-economic indicators: theories and applications*
- No. 2. The uses of geography
- No. 3. Quantified analyses of social phenomena
- No. 4. Professionalism in flux

Vol. XXVIII, 1976

- No. 1. Science in policy and policy for science*
- No. 2. The infernal cycle of armament*
- No. 3. Economics of information and information for economists*
- No. 4. Towards a new international economic and social order*

Vol. XXIX, 1977

- No. 1. Approaches to the study of international organizations
- No. 2. Social dimensions of religion
- No. 3. The health of nations
- No. 4. Facets of interdisciplinarity

Vol. XXX, 1978

- No. 1. The politics of territoriality*
- No. 2. Exploring global interdependence
- No. 3. Human habitats: from tradition to modernism
- No. 4. Violence

Vol. XXXI, 1979

- No. 1. Pedagogics of social science: some experiences
- No. 2. Rural-urban articulations*
- No. 3. Patterns of child socialization
- No. 4. In search of rational organization

Vol. XXXII, 1980

- No. 1. The anatomy of tourism
- No. 2. Dilemmas of communication: technology versus communities?
- No. 3. Work
- No. 4. On the state*

Vol. XXXIII, 1981

- No. 1. Socio-economic information: systems, uses and needs
- No. 2. At the frontiers of sociology
- No. 3. Technology and cultural values
- No. 4. Modern historiography

Vol. XXXIV, 1982

- No. 91. Images of world society
- No. 92. Sporting life*
- No. 93. Man in ecosystems
- No. 94. Makings of music

Vol. XXXV, 1983

- No. 95. Burdens of militarization
- No. 96. Political dimensions of psychology
- No. 97. The world economy: theory and reality
- No. 98. Women in power spheres*

Vol. XXXVI, 1984

- No. 99. Interaction through language
- No. 100. Industrial democracy
- No. 101. Migration
- No. 102. Epistemology of social science

Vol. XXXVII, 1985

- No. 103. International comparisons
- No. 104. Social sciences of education
- No. 105. Food systems
- No. 106. Youth

Vol. XXXVIII, 1986

- No. 107. Time and society
- No. 108. The study of public policy
- No. 109. Environmental awareness
- No. 110. Collective violence and security

Vol. XXXIX, 1987

- No. 111. Ethnic phenomena
- No. 112. Regional science
- No. 113. Economic analysis and interdisciplinarity
- No. 114. The processes of transition

Vol. XL, 1988

- No. 115. Cognitive science
- No. 116. Trends in anthropology
- No. 117. The local–global nexus
- No. 118. Modernity and identity

Vol. XLI, 1989

- No. 119. Influences of the French Revolution
- No. 120. Economic Growth Policies
- No. 121. Reconciling the sociosphere and the biosphere
- No. 122. Knowledge and the State

Vol. XLII, 1990

- No. 123. Policy Actors
- No. 124. Peasantries
- No. 125. Tales of Cities
- No. 126. Changing Family Patterns

Vol. XLIII, 1991

- No. 127. International Conflict Research
- No. 128. The Age of Democracy
- No. 129. Rethinking Democracy
- No. 130. Global Environmental Change

Vol. XLIV, 1992

- No. 131. Europe in the Making
- No. 132. Thinking about Violence
- No. 133. Historical Sociology
- No. 134. The Americas: 1492–1992

Vol. XLV, 1993

- No. 135. Innovation
- No. 136. Comparative Political Sociology
- No. 137. Exploring the Future
- No. 138. International Organizations

Vol. XLVI, 1994

- No. 139. Sociology: State of the Art I
- No. 140. Sociology: State of the Art II
- No. 141. Population: Issues and Policies
- No. 142. European Social Science Databases

Vol. XLVII, 1995

- No. 143. Measuring and Evaluating Development
- No. 144. Organizing International Relations: Fifty Years after the United Nations Charter
- No. 145. Fundamental Values Across Nations
- No. 146. Public Opinion and Electoral Behaviour

Vol. XLVIII, 1996

- No. 147. Cities of the Future: Managing Social Transformations
- No. 148. Poverty
- No. 149. Corruption in Western Democracies
- No. 150. Geography: State of the Art I

Vol. XLIX, 1997

- No. 151. Geography: State of the Art II
- No. 152. Democracy and Law
- No. 153. Anthropology – Issues and Perspectives I
- No. 154. Anthropology – Issues and Perspectives II

Vol. L, 1998

- No. 155. Governance
- No. 156. Social transformations: multicultural and multi-ethnic societies
- No. 157. Fifty years of the ISSJ: A selection of articles
- No. 158. Human rights: 50th anniversary of the Universal Declaration

Vol. LI, 1999

- No. 159. Social and cultural aspects of regional integration
- No. 160. Globalization
- No. 161. Health policies and social values
- No. 162. Policy options for social development

Vol. LII, 2000

- No. 163. Changing roles of the State
- No. 164. Youth in Transition
- No. 165. International Migration 2000
- No. 166. The Development Debate: Beyond the Washington Consensus

Vol. LIII, 2001

- No. 167. Federalism
- No. 168. Science and its Cultures
- No. 169. Drug Trafficking: Economic and Social Dimensions
- No. 170. Global Governance and its Critics

Vol. LIV, 2002

- No. 171. The Knowledge Society
- No. 172. Urban partnerships
- No. 173. Indigenous knowledge
- No. 174. Extreme Violence