

Contents

|   |             |
|---|-------------|
| Preface  | xi   |
| About the Contributors                                   | xiii |
| INTRODUCTION   |             |
| 1 Political Governance of Cultural Diversity             | 3    |
| Matthias Koenig &amp; Paul de Guchteneire                |             |
| Nation-states and the Problem of Cultural Diversity             | 4           |
| Transforming the Nation-State – The Impact of Human Rights      | 6           |
| Ethnic, Linguistic and Religious Politics of Recognition        | 7           |
| Territorially Based Ethnic or National Movements                | 8           |
| Linguistic Diversity and Language Policy                        | 10          |
| Secularism and Religious Diversity                              | 12          |
| Conclusion  | 14          |
| References  | 14          |
| PART I ETHNO-NATIONAL MOVEMENTS                          |             |
| 2 Nationalism, Ethnic Conflict and Democratic Governance | 21   |
| Juan Díez-Medrano  |             |
| Theoretical Approaches  | 21          |
| Primordialism   | 22          |
| Social Constructivism   | 22          |
| Rational Choice   | 24          |
| State Policy and Ethnonationalism: Theoretical Predictions      | 26          |
| Case Studies  | 26          |
| The Basque Country  | 27          |
| Northern Ireland  | 27          |
| Québec  | 28          |
| Chiapas   | 28          |
| The Kurdish Question in Turkey                                  | 29          |
| Case Studies and Theoretical Predictions                        | 29          |
| References  | 32          |

|          |   |           |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 3 | Constitutional and Governmental Policies towardsBasque Nationalist Extremism  | 35 |
|          | Enric Martínez-Herrera   |           |
|          | Strategies of the State facing Nationalist Insurgent Extremism:   |           |
|          | Repressive and Responsive Frames  | 36        |
|          | Repressive Policies and Insurgent Nationalist Extremism   | 36        |
|          | Responsive Policies and Insurgent Nationalist Extremism   | 37        |
|          | Dimensions of Insurgent Nationalist Extremism in the BasqueCountry  | 39        |
|          | Victims of Terrorism  | 40        |
|          | Herri Batasuna/Euskal Herritarrok Voting  | 40        |
|          | Basque Exclusivist Identification   | 41        |
|          | Dimensions and Indicators of State Policies in the Basque Case  | 42        |
|          | Repressive Policies   | 42        |
|          | Responsive Policies   | 42        |
|          | Empirical Analysis  | 44        |
|          | The Development of Violence   | 44        |
|          | Development of Basque Extremist Nationalist Voting  | 50        |
|          | Development of Rejection towards Spain  | 51        |
|          | Implications for Theory and Policy  | 56        |
|          | Notes   | 57        |
|          | References  | 59        |
| 4 | Conflict Management in Northern Ireland  | 61 |
|          | Stefan Wolff   |           |
|          | Introduction  | 61        |
|          | About the Conflict and its Solutions  | 62        |
|          | Settling the Conflict? Constitutional Reform, Institutional Change,Security Policy, and Economic and Social Development in theirEffectiveness over Time | 64        |
|          | Failure of the Sunningdale Process  | 65        |
|          | The Anglo-Irish Agreement   | 68        |
|          | Assessing the Success and Failure of British Conflict Managementand Resolution Policies in Northern Ireland   | 79        |
|          | Reducing the Level of Violent Conflict  | 79        |
|          | Republican Violence   | 80        |
|          | Loyalist Violence   | 80        |
|          | Violence and Community Relations  | 81        |
|          | Establishing the Conditions for an Inclusive Political Process?   | 83        |
|          | Balance of Political Power Between and Within the Communities   | 83        |
|          | Afterword: Northern Ireland since the Good Friday Agreement—Stability or Collapse of the Peace Process  | 85        |
|          | Notes   | 87        |
|          | Appendix  | 89        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| References   | 91         |
| Note on Terminology  | 95         |
| 5 The Decline of the PKK and the Viability of a One-State Solution in Turkey  | 93  |
| Matthew Adam Kocher   |            |
| Violence and Demographic Shift   | 95         |
| Identity   | 101        |
| Public Opinion   | 104        |
| Implications for Future Policy   | 109        |
| Notes  | 110        |
| References   | 111        |
| PART II LINGUISTIC DIVERSITY  |            |
| 6 Linguistic Rights as an Integral Part of Human Rights – A Legal Perspective | 115 |
| Fernand de Varennes   |            |
| Private Use of Minority Language   | 116        |
| Use of Minority Language by Public Authorities                                       | 118        |
| Significance of Linking Language Rights as Part of Human Rights                      | 121        |
| Linguistic Rights, Stability and Multicultural Democracies                           | 122        |
| Conclusion   | 124        |
| Notes  | 125        |
| Bibliography   | 125        |
| 7 Protecting Linguistic Minorities – The Role of the OSCE                     | 127 |
| Sally Holt &amp; John Packer  |            |
| Language in the OSCE Framework   | 127        |
| OSCE and Conflict Prevention   | 127        |
| Integrating Diversity  | 129        |
| Some Remarks Regarding States' Practice  | 130        |
| The Oslo and Hague Recommendations   | 132        |
| Survey of State Practice   | 132        |
| Role of OSCE Institutions in Addressing Specific Language-related Issues             | 133        |
| OSCE Institutions  | 133        |
| Public/Private Divide  | 136        |
| Resources  | 137        |
| Public Administrative Authorities  | 138        |
| Public Office and the Electoral Process  | 140        |
| Employment in the Public and Private Spheres   | 143        |
| Citizenship  | 144        |
| Economic/Commercial Sphere   | 145        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Provision of Public Services   | 146        |
| Education  | 147        |
| The Media  | 152        |
| Conclusion   | 154        |
| Notes  | 156        |
| References   | 163        |
| 8 Language Legislation in the Baltic States   | 167 |
| Boriss Cilevičs   |            |
| Development of Linguistic Legislation after the Restoration of Independence                                  | 168        |
| Status of Languages and Recognition of Minority Languages  | 169        |
| Use of Languages in Legislatures and Elected Municipal Bodies  | 171        |
| Right to Use Minority Language(s) before Public Authorities  | 173        |
| Professional and Occupational Language Requirements  | 174        |
| Languages in Media   | 176        |
| Use of Languages in Education  | 177        |
| Conclusions: Main Features of the Language Policies in the Baltic States                                     | 179        |
| Notes  | 182        |
| References   | 184        |
| 9 Language Rights in South Africa: an Adequate Level of Minority Protection?                          | 185 |
| Kristin Henrard   |            |
| Definition of the Minority Concept and its Application to the South African Population                       | 187        |
| Relevant Historical Events and Developments  | 189        |
| Constitutional Negotiations and Analysis of the Relevant Provisions of the 1996 Constitution of South Africa | 189        |
| Certification Judgements as related to the 1996 Constitution of the Constitutional Court                     | 193        |
| Implementation of the Relevant Constitutional Provisions   | 195        |
| Section 6 of the 1996 Constitution: Status of Languages Spoken in South Africa                               | 195        |
| Language in Education: Section 29(2) of the 1996 Constitution  | 199        |
| Minority Rights Sensu Stricto and Language, Including the “Minorities” Commission                     | 201        |
| International Framework regarding Language Rights for Minorities Standards                                   | 203        |
| Supervision  | 207        |
| Evaluation of the South African Norms and their Application in Light of this Framework                       | 209        |
| Notes  | 210        |
| References   | 214        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 10 The Impact of Language Policy on Endangered Languages   | 217 |
| Suzanne Romaine  |            |
| Evaluating Policies and the Fallacy of Autonomy   | 219        |
| Weak Linkages   | 223        |
| Timing: Too Little Too Late?  | 230        |
| Factors Other than Legal Status   | 231        |
| Conclusion: The Proof is in the Pudding   | 233        |
| References  | 234        |
|   |            |
| PART III RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY   |            |
|   |            |
| 11 The Resurgence of Religious Movements in the Processes of Globalization – Beyond the End of History or the Clash of Civilizations | 239 |
| Shmuel N. Eisenstadt   |            |
| Resurgence of Fundamentalist and Communal-Religious Movements and the Transformation of the Classical Nation-State                          | 241        |
| Modernity and the Resurgence of Fundamentalist and Communal-Religious Movements   | 242        |
| Reinterpretations of Modernity – the Larger Context   | 243        |
| Specificities of the New Fundamentalist and Communal-Religious Movements  | 244        |
| Impact of Civilizational Traditions on the Formation of Modernities   | 245        |
| Conclusion: Multiple Modernities beyond the End of History and the Clash of Civilizations – New Potentials for Conflict                     | 246        |
| Notes   | 249        |
| References  | 249        |
|   |            |
| 12 Modes of Religious Pluralism under Conditions of Globalization  | 251 |
| Ole Riis   |            |
| Concept of Pluralism  | 252        |
| A phenomenology of religious pluralism  | 253        |
| Religious Pluralism from the Perspective of the Sociology of Religion   | 255        |
| Public Recognition of Denominations as a Mode of Religious Pluralism  | 258        |
| Pillarization as a Mode of Religious Pluralism  | 260        |
| Dilemmas of Pluralism   | 262        |
| Notes   | 264        |
| References  | 265        |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 13 Prison Chaplaincy in England and Wales – from Anglican Brokerage to a Multi-faith Approach | 267 |
| James A. Beckford   |            |
| Pluralism or Diversity?  | 267        |
| Growth of Religious and Ethnic Diversity   | 269        |
| Brokerage by the Church of England   | 273        |
| Resistance to Brokerage  | 275        |
| Towards Multi-faith Chaplaincy   | 277        |
| Conclusion   | 279        |
| Notes  | 281        |
| References   | 281        |
| 14 The Challenges of Religious Pluralism in Post-Soviet Russia                                | 283 |
| Kathy Rousselet   |            |
| Religious Diversity and Social Conflicts   | 284        |
| State Management of Religious Diversity – Towards which Model of Secularism?                         | 288        |
| Religion, Community and Territory  | 294        |
| Conclusion   | 296        |
| Notes  | 299        |
| Bibliography   | 300        |

Index