UNFPA ^[1]with UNESCO ^[2] and IPPF ^[3] are pleased to announce a presentation of the CSE Advocacy Hub (the Hub) on 29 November.

Youth leaders have strongly voiced both a desire and enthusiasm for a safe online communication platform for advocates working in the field of Comprehensive Sexuality Education to share information and advice. The hub has been developed and tested will continue to be managed by young activists in partnership with international civil society organizations with a user base of all CSE advocates and experts.
