

The Community Assistance Module

Bonn, October 2014

Daniel Labillois, CEGIM
Pierre-Luc Gagnon, CIRADD

The Gaspé Peninsula – Quebec, Canada

Presented at Global Forum on
14-16 October 2014
Organized by UNESCO-UNEVOC

Centre d'initiation à la recherche et d'aide au développement durable (CIRADD)

Presented at Global Forum on
14-16 October 2014
Organized by UNESCO-UNEVOC

- Research Initiation and Sustainable Development Support Centre
- Located at the Carleton-sur-Mer campus.
- Created in 2006.

Areas of intervention:

- Community empowerment and mobilization;
- Analysis and review of territorial development models;
- Innovative practices for rural development;
- Community adaptation to climate change.

The Community Assistance Module (CAM)

Presented at Global Forum on
14-16 October 2014
Organized by UNESCO-UNEVOC

- Objectives:
 - Familiarize students with scientific research;
 - Contribute to regional sustainable development;
 - Increase students' motivation levels through tangible projects and promote entrepreneurial values;
- Stakeholders:
 - Students, teaching institution and staff, community organizations, research centre;
- Outcomes:
 - Provide technical support to local organizations;
 - Build bridges between students and organizations.

CAM's International Transferability

Presented at Global Forum on
14-16 October 2014
Organized by UNESCO-UNEVOC

- The Community Assistance Module is transferable.
- Advantages:
 - Low implementation costs;
 - Valuable results in terms of education, skills development and the promotion of entrepreneurial values;
- In the process of being transferred into two Caribbean countries:
 - Grenada;
 - Haiti.