Introduction

This list follows the order of the document codes, which is also the filing order of the master microfiches in the Unesco Archives. The diazo copies in the Library are, on the other hand, filed according to the microfiche number; the two filing methods are complementary.

The list refers also to the archival series of Executive Board documents in the Archives reading room, indicating the numbers of the bound volumes.

The microfilming was started in 1972 and continued during the following years. In the microfiche number 73 EX 0272, for example, the first element indicates the year the work was done. However, during the complementary microfilming done after a complete checking of the series in 1983, the numbers '72' were used (72 EX 0262 - 1284).

All microfiches are also available on sale, individual fiches as well as sets by session and the complete series since 1946; all enquiries should be addressed to PUB/C or LAD/UMS.

In principle, microfiches exist of agendas of the sessions, all working documents (code 78 EX/29, for example), decisions of the Board (code 78 EX/Dec.) and summary records (code 78 EX/SR). Commission and committee documents, draft resolutions (DR), information and nomination documents are excluded.

For general information on the Board, see: The Executive Board Manual and The Executive Board of Unesco (1981 edition); the latter is an information document giving basic and detailed data on the composition, functions and structure of the Board, and an alphabetical list of Members since 1946.

Finding aids:

Unesco list of documents and publications (ULDP) 1972 -

Board documents since 1972 are listed and indexed here; working documents can also be traced by their subject matter by the computer on-line. Previously the Board's documents were listed in the Unesco list of documents and publications 1949-1972.

How to do research

The starting point of research in the Board's documents could be, especially if the year is known, the list of documents and agendas of the sessions; followed by an on-line computer search or consultation of the Unesco list of documents and publications. For the time being the most comprehensive access from the subject point of view to the Board's proceedings are the six indexes to the decisions of the Board for 1946-1980. The index refers to a decision, which indicates first the code of the working document submitted to the Board and second, the corresponding summary records, where the statements and interventions are reproduced.

Example:

'Human rights, violations' 95/10.1 : the Board discussed this matter during its 95th session in 1975, the decision 95 EX/Dec. 10.1 refers to the document 95 EX/50 and the discussions are to be found in the documents coded 95 EX/SR.21,22.
