What you need to know on arrival

The 32nd session of the General Conference is being held in Paris, at UNESCO Headquarters, from 10 a.m. on Monday, 29 September 2003 to Friday, 17 October 2003.

We recommend that you arrive in Paris on the eve of the session in order to complete a number of formalities without rushing.

REGISTRATION

Registration will take place at the Delegates' Reception in the foyer opposite Room I of the Conference Building, on the Fontenoy site. You will be given your badge which must be shown at the entrances of all buildings and at security checks.

The same service also registers persons accompanying delegates and provides them with a badge which allows them access to buildings throughout the General Conference.

Observers from intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and foundations are requested to register at the IGO/NGO Reception (Fontenoy Building, Room III).

CREDENTIALS

Credentials must be sent one week before the opening date of the session (Rule 23 of the Rules of Procedure of the General Conference).

Delegations whose credentials have not yet been presented to the Director-General are requested to hand them directly to the Secretariat of the Credentials Committee, which is responsible for checking the credentials of all the delegations (Ms Ndédi, Miró Hall, MR.01, tel.: 85192).

INFORMATION

To find out all you want to know about the schedule, content and workings of the General Conference, contact the Delegates' Information Office (Ms S. Coudray, Hall of Ceremonies, tel.: 85188).

The daily schedule of meetings will be displayed in the hall of the Conference Building and on the closed-circuit television screens; it will also be announced in the Mini Journal of the General Conference.

Detailed information on the General Conference and its workings, in particular the Constitution and Rules of Procedure, can be found in the Manuel of the General Conference, which is available in meeting rooms.

DOCUMENTS

To indicate which documents your delegation would like to receive during the General Conference, in what language and how many copies, all you need do is fill in G.C. form 18 which can be obtained from the Documents Distribution Service, in the basement of the Conference Building (see map 2). You will find your documents every day in your pigeon-hole at the Documents Distribution Service.

In each meeting room, delegates will find at their place a complete set of the documents needed for the work of the body which is using the room. It is recommended that that set of documents should remain in the room so that it can be updated.

All UNESCO's General Conference documents are accessible on the Internet.

WORKING LANGUAGES

The working languages are Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation is provided in these six languages; all documents which require a decision by the General Conference are also published in these languages.

Information documents (32 C/INF) and the Journal of the General Conference are available in English and French only.

GENERAL POLICY DEBATE

Delegations are invited to address any question related to the general policy debate to Mrs. Patricia Menendez (office S.383
Tel: 80752).

SEATING ARRANGEMENTS FOR DELEGATES

In the plenary meeting rooms and in the commissions, Member States have one place which is allocated to them in French alphabetical order, starting with Spain, whose name has been drawn by lot. The number of seats per delegation varies according to the room. Places will be set aside for observers.

RECOMMENDED READING

Two documents must be read - documents 32 C/1 (Agenda) and 32 C/2 (Organization of the work of the session) - so that you can decide which commissions and meetings you will attend; the same applies to the Mini Journal of the General Conference, which is issued every day, starting on the first day of the session.

General Conference

The General Conference meets every two years. The participants are all the Member States and Associate Members; non-Member States, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations and movements are invited as observers.

The General Conference decides on the main lines of emphasis and general approach to the implementation of UNESCO's work by:

- ▶ discussing all the issues concerning the general policy of the Organization, and occasionally by focusing on certain major themes;
- ▶ adopting for the next two years a programme and budget, the draft of which is submitted to the General Conference and is the outcome of a consultation process between the Member States and the Secretariat;
- ▶ electing the Members of the Executive Board
- ▶ appointing, every six years, the Director-General;
- ▶ adopting the (six-year) Medium-Term Strategy of the Organization.

How the system works

The General Conference carries out its work in several organs - plenary, commissions and various committees and working groups - which sometimes meet simultaneously.

Plenary

The heads of delegation attend the plenary and take part in the general policy debate. All decisions of the General Conference are taken in plenary.

Commissions and committees

The General Conference may set up at each session the commissions and committees it deems necessary. In practice, there are five programme commissions and an Administrative Commission.

In each commission, the elected bureau is made up of a chairperson, four vice-chairpersons and a rapporteur; it is assisted by a secretariat composed of staff members specially seconded to the commission for the duration of the session.

The agendas of the commissions are organized around one of the main themes of UNESCO's programme and, at this session, each of the programme commission will also examine the part relating to its terms of reference of the cross-cutting themes:

Eradication of poverty,

especially extreme poverty and The contribution of information and communication technologies to the development of education, science and culture and the construction of a knowledge society.

The themes for the commissions at this session are:

COMMISSION I: General questions and programme support (including the Participation Programme) (Room XI);

COMMISSION II: Education (Room II);

COMMISSION III: Natural sciences and Social and Human sciences (Room XII);

COMMISSION IV: Culture (Room II);

COMMISSION V: Communication (Room II);

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION: administrative and financial issues (Room XI).

In each debate, a delegation takes the floor once only. Delegates who have a draft resolution (DR) to present should, if possible, do so during their statement. Nevertheless, each commission can also decide that its bureau will present DRs at a set moment at the end of the debate.

Commission II and the Administrative Commission will start work on Tuesday 30 September, followed by other commissions.

There are also three statutory committees: the Credentials Committee (Room VIII) is made up of nine members elected at the first plenary meeting of the General Conference on the proposal of the Temporary

President; it checks the credentials of participants;

the Legal Committee (Room VI) consists of 21 members elected at the previous session; it is responsible for considering draft amendments to the Constitution or Rules of Procedure of the General Conference, and legal matters which are submitted to it;

the Nominations Committee (Room IV) consists of the heads of all the delegations with voting rights at the General Conference; it examines and submits to the General Conference proposals concerning the composition of commissions and committees and other bodies whose members must be elected by the General Conference (Rules 34 and 35 of the Rules of Procedure).

The General Committee (Room X [apart exceptions]) steers the work of the General Conference and coordinates the work of commissions and committees; it is made up of the President and Vice-Presidents of the General Conference and the chairpersons of the subsidiary organs. It sets the agenda of the plenary meetings, approves the list of speakers in the general policy debate and examines requests for the inclusion of new items in the agenda. Each commission and committee chairperson reports regularly to it on the progress of the work.

Taking the floor

During the general policy debate, speakers must limit their statements to 8 minutes (which most speakers take to read a four-page double-spaced text).

Delegations are requested to send, in advance, to Mrs Patricia Menendez (office S.383 tel.: 80752), six copies of their statement which will be given to the interpreters, the transcription service and the press. A photocopying service is available to delegations in front of the sound archives in the basement of the Conference Building (office S.371).

In the commissions, the time limit on speeches is set by the chairperson. In order to take the floor in commission, please contact the secretariat of the commission before or during the meeting, but in any event before the list of speakers is closed.

To be sure of accurate interpretation and a reliable report, it is useful to hand a copy of your text in advance to the secretary and to the rapporteur of the commission, even if it is not typed. The conference officers are at speakers' disposal to make photocopies.

Normally, speakers speak from their seats; however, during the general policy debate in Room I, heads of delegation speak from the platform.

Draft resolutions

A draft resolution, or DR, is a proposal submitted by one or more delegations with a view to having it adopted as a decision of the General Conference. Most DRs aim to modify guidelines laid down in the draft programme and budget and are examined initially in commission; some go directly to the plenary when they concern agenda items examined only in plenary.

In each commission, the bureau undertakes an initial analysis of the DRs and prepares the decisions to which they may give rise on the Commission's behalf. For that purpose, account is taken in particular of the rules governing their admissibility (Rules 80 and 81 of the Rules of Procedure).

Voting procedures

Each Member State has one vote, unless its credentials have not been accepted as fully valid by the Credentials Committee or it has not satisfied the provisions of paragraph 2 of Rule 83 of the Rules of Procedure concerning arrears in contributions.

There are several ways of voting: by show of hands (the most common), by secret ballot (for elections) or by roll-call (in exceptional cases). To vote by show of hands, raise your country's nameplate.

Decisions are taken by a simple majority of members present and voting except in cases where a two-thirds majority is required, for instance for the admission of new members (Rules 84 and 85 of the Rules of Procedure).

Often, when there is general agreement, decisions are taken without a vote by consensus.

Elections

Many elections, organized by the Nominations Committee, take place during the General Conference:

- ▶ election of the General Committee of the General Conference, which takes place, on the proposal of the Executive Board, at the beginning of the plenary;
- ▶ election of the Members of the Executive Board, which takes place in accordance with the distribution of Member States by electoral group (Group I: 9 seats, Group II: 7 seats, Group III: 10 seats, Group IV: 12 seats, Group V: 20 seats); candidacies must be communicated to the Director-General if possible at least six weeks before the session and in any event at least 48 hours before the election;
- ▶ elections of the bureaux of the commissions and committees of the General Conference;
- ▶ elections of the intergovernmental committees and councils associated with UNESCO's programme.

The timetable of work and the Mini Journal of the General Conference give the dates of the elections.

For the election of the Members of the Executive Board, a voting bureau is set up in Room V on the days of the election; delegates may vote there at their convenience without any break in the discussions (see document 32 C/2).

Stages of the General Conference

THE FIRST THREE PLENARY MEETINGS

Monday, 29 September, 10 a.m.

The General Conference begins with an opening ceremony in plenary, temporarily presided over by the head of the delegation whose country was President at the previous session.

The Temporary President proposes to the General Conference the choice of the nine members of the Credentials Committee, which meets on the same day.

The General Conference then approves its agenda, prepared by the Executive Board.

Monday, 29 September, 3 p.m.

The General Conference elects its President and Vice-Presidents, on the proposal of the Nominations Committee; the latter, consisting of all the heads of delegation, will have met that morning to consider the Executive Board's recommendations on the issue.

The Credentials Committee then submits its first report to plenary.

Tuesday, 30 September, 10 a.m.

The third plenary meeting will begin with consideration of the General Committee's recommendations on the organization of work (document 32 C/2).

Then, the Chairperson of the Executive Board will introduce the report by the Executive Board on its activity in 2002 and 2003 (document 32 C/9).

Next, the Director-General introduces the general policy debate by presenting the draft programme and budget. On that occasion he reviews UNESCO's actions since the last session of the General Conference (document 32 C/INF.1). The general policy debate concludes with the Director-General's reply.

The plenary will sit until 8 October, at the same time as the commissions and committees (see timetable of work, Annex VII of document 32 C/2).

THE LAST THREE DAYS OF THE SESSION:

During the last three days of the session, the Plenary resumes its work in order to consider and adopt the reports of the Commissions (presented by their Chairpersons) and the budget. Once approved in the Plenary, the drafts prepared by the Commissions become decisions (called Resolutions) of the General Conference.

If your delegation does not have a permanent office, the calls will be redirected to the "telephone centre" in the Fontenoy building (see Map 1). If you are expecting a call at a specific time, stay near the "telephone centre", or tell the switchboard operator where you will be. You might usefully advise your correspondent to ask for a “person-to-person” call, which is billed from the moment the requested correspondent comes on the line. To call an extension in UNESCO, dial the five figures directly. To reach a number in Paris, dial 0 and then the 10 digit number of your correspondent. You can call outside Paris and outside France directly from the office of your permanent delegation, which will receive the bill later, or from the switchboard in the Conference Building; in the latter case, you pay immediately.

Temporary secretarial staff The Bureau of Human Resources Management (Ms A.M. Bastide, office E.174, tel.: 82485) can help find temporary secretarial staff, at your own expense. UNESCO’s permanent staff cannot be made available to delegates.

practical guide

Cultural activities in Paris

The French Ministry of Foreign Affairs proposes meetings for delegates with individuals active in the fields of culture, science and education and with specialized departments of the French Government. Contact the Host Country Reception Office (Salle des Pas Perdus, tel.: 85189). The UNESCO Community Association has designed special programmes for persons accompanying participants: information can be obtained from the Association's stand in the basement (tel.: 85190).

Department stores

Bon Marché (métro: Sèvres-Babylone) is the nearest. Buses 80 and 28 will take you to Saint Lazare train station, which is only a few minutes' walk from Printemps and Galleries Lafayette, both on Boulevard Haussmann.

Exchange rates

(July 2003) (local currency is now Euro)

US $1 = 1,15 €

£1 = 1,44 €

Museums

All national museums, such as the Louvre, are closed on Tuesdays; Paris City museums are closed on Mondays.

Parking

There are many public fee-paying parking spaces in Paris, indicated by a sign with a white P on a blue background.

Restaurants near UNESCO

Would you like to lunch or dine outside UNESCO? A list of restaurants can be obtained from Delegates' Reception.

Theatres, concerts, cinemas and Paris by night

The host Country Reception Office provides programmes of cultural events in Paris during the session and enables you to book concert and theatre seats.

There are two weekly publications on cultural events: Pariscope (with a section in English in the middle) and the Officiel des spectacles, which can both be bought at all news-stands.

Transport in Paris

Individual car hire

All the major car hire firms are represented in Paris. The travel agency at UNESCO can reserve a car from any firm.

Taxis

You can find taxis at the taxi ranks shown on the map on the back of this guide; it is more reliable to telephone one of the following numbers: 01 45 66 00 00, 01 49 36 10 10, or 01 47 34 00 00. Give the address of the building where you are (see the inside cover of this guide) and UNESCO's telephone number (01 45 68 10 00). On arrival, the meter will already show a certain amount. That amount, which corresponds to the price of the journey made to pick you up, is charged to you. There are three rates, according to the time and distance from the city centre: rate A - in Paris from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.; rate B - in the outer suburbs and in Paris after 7 p.m., on Sundays and public holidays; rate C — the outer suburbs at night.

Public transport

Metro: One ticket is valid for one trip regardless of the distance travelled. It is cheaper to buy 10 tickets at a time, asking for a "carnet".

Stations close to UNESCO: Ségur,
Cambronne, Sèvres-Lecourbe,
Ecole Militaire.

If you intend to move about frequently, we recommend that you buy the carte orange (season ticket), available in all stations. To obtain one, you will need a passport photograph. A coupon hebdomadaire (for one week) or a coupon mensuel (for one month) allows for an unlimited number of trips.

Bus: Use the same tickets, coupons and cards as for the métro, one ticket per trip. You must punch the tickets but not the coupons or cards. Buses which pass near UNESCO are the 28, 80, 82, 87 and 92.

Bus stops and métro stations are shown on the map on the back of this guide.
