

Urdaibai

Governance at the local level

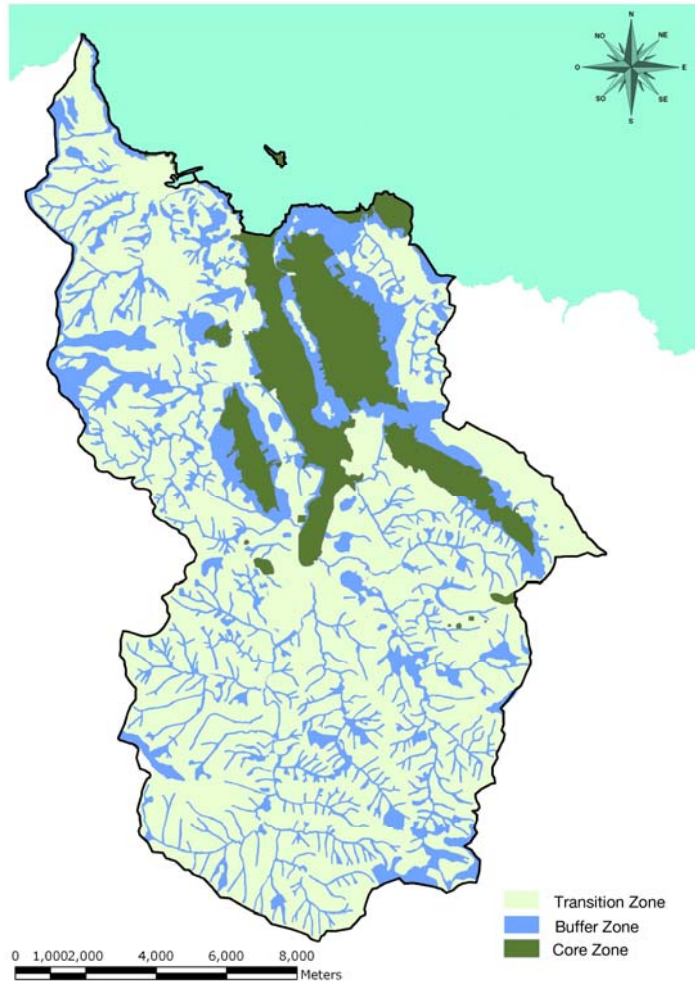

Biosphere Reserves

The Urdaibai Biosphere Reserve

Zoning and protection

Core = SPA:

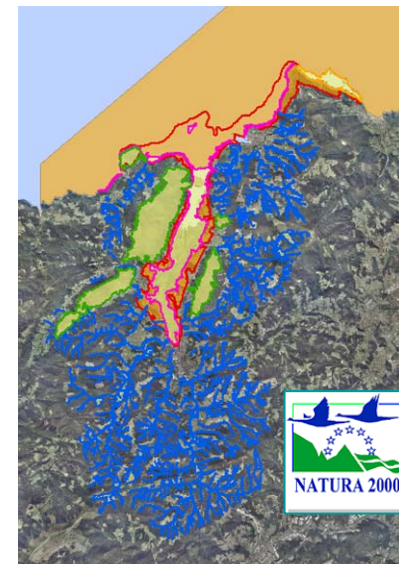

estuary, coastal cliffs, oak groves and archaeological sites.

Protection Area = PA:

rivers, oak groves, landscape.

Transition Area:

agricultural areas, forests, common rural land, rural communities...

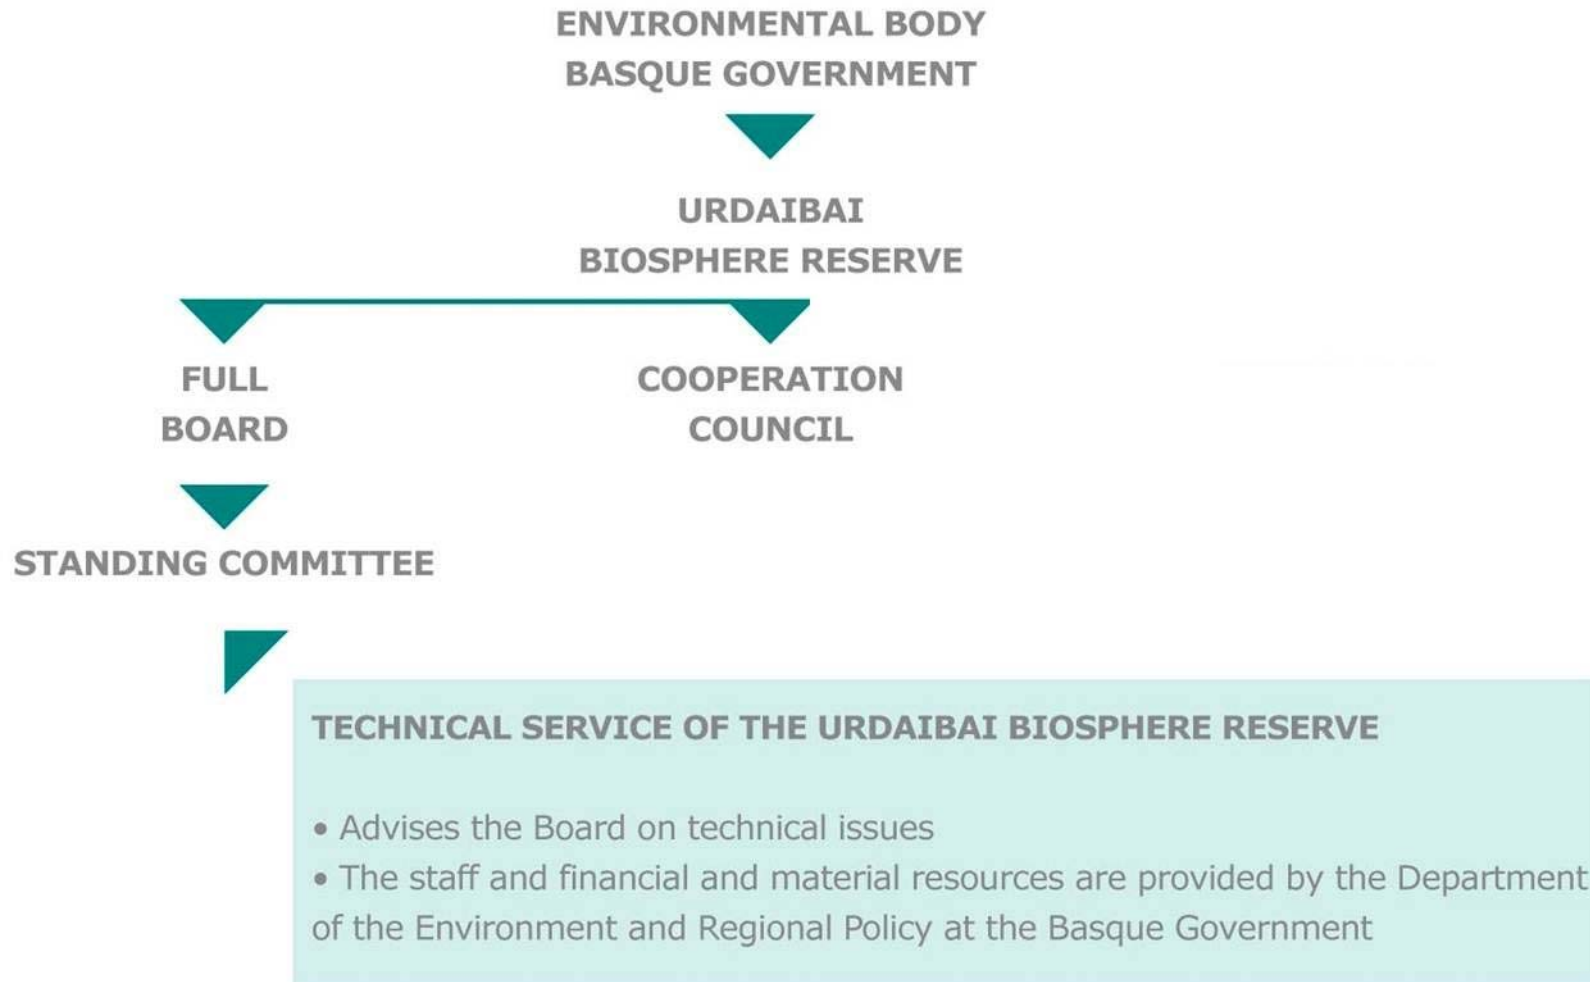

UNESCO Declaration (1984)

Urdaibai Act (1989)

It is the first protected site in the Basque Country

Participatory bodies

Multi-stakeholder board

- Inter-administrative body for cooperation and participation, it guarantees the consistency of sector policies.
 - Members:
 - all the administrations with responsibility for the biosphere Reserve (Basque government, provincial and municipal councils, Spanish government)
 - the trade unions
 - ecology groups
 - the university
 - UNESCO (through Unescoetxea).
-

Functions

- To ensure that Urdaibai regulations are implemented.
 - To promote the elaboration of sectorial plans.
 - The emission of reports about:
 - Land uses.
 - Construction acts.
 - Urban plans or Sectorial Plans.
-

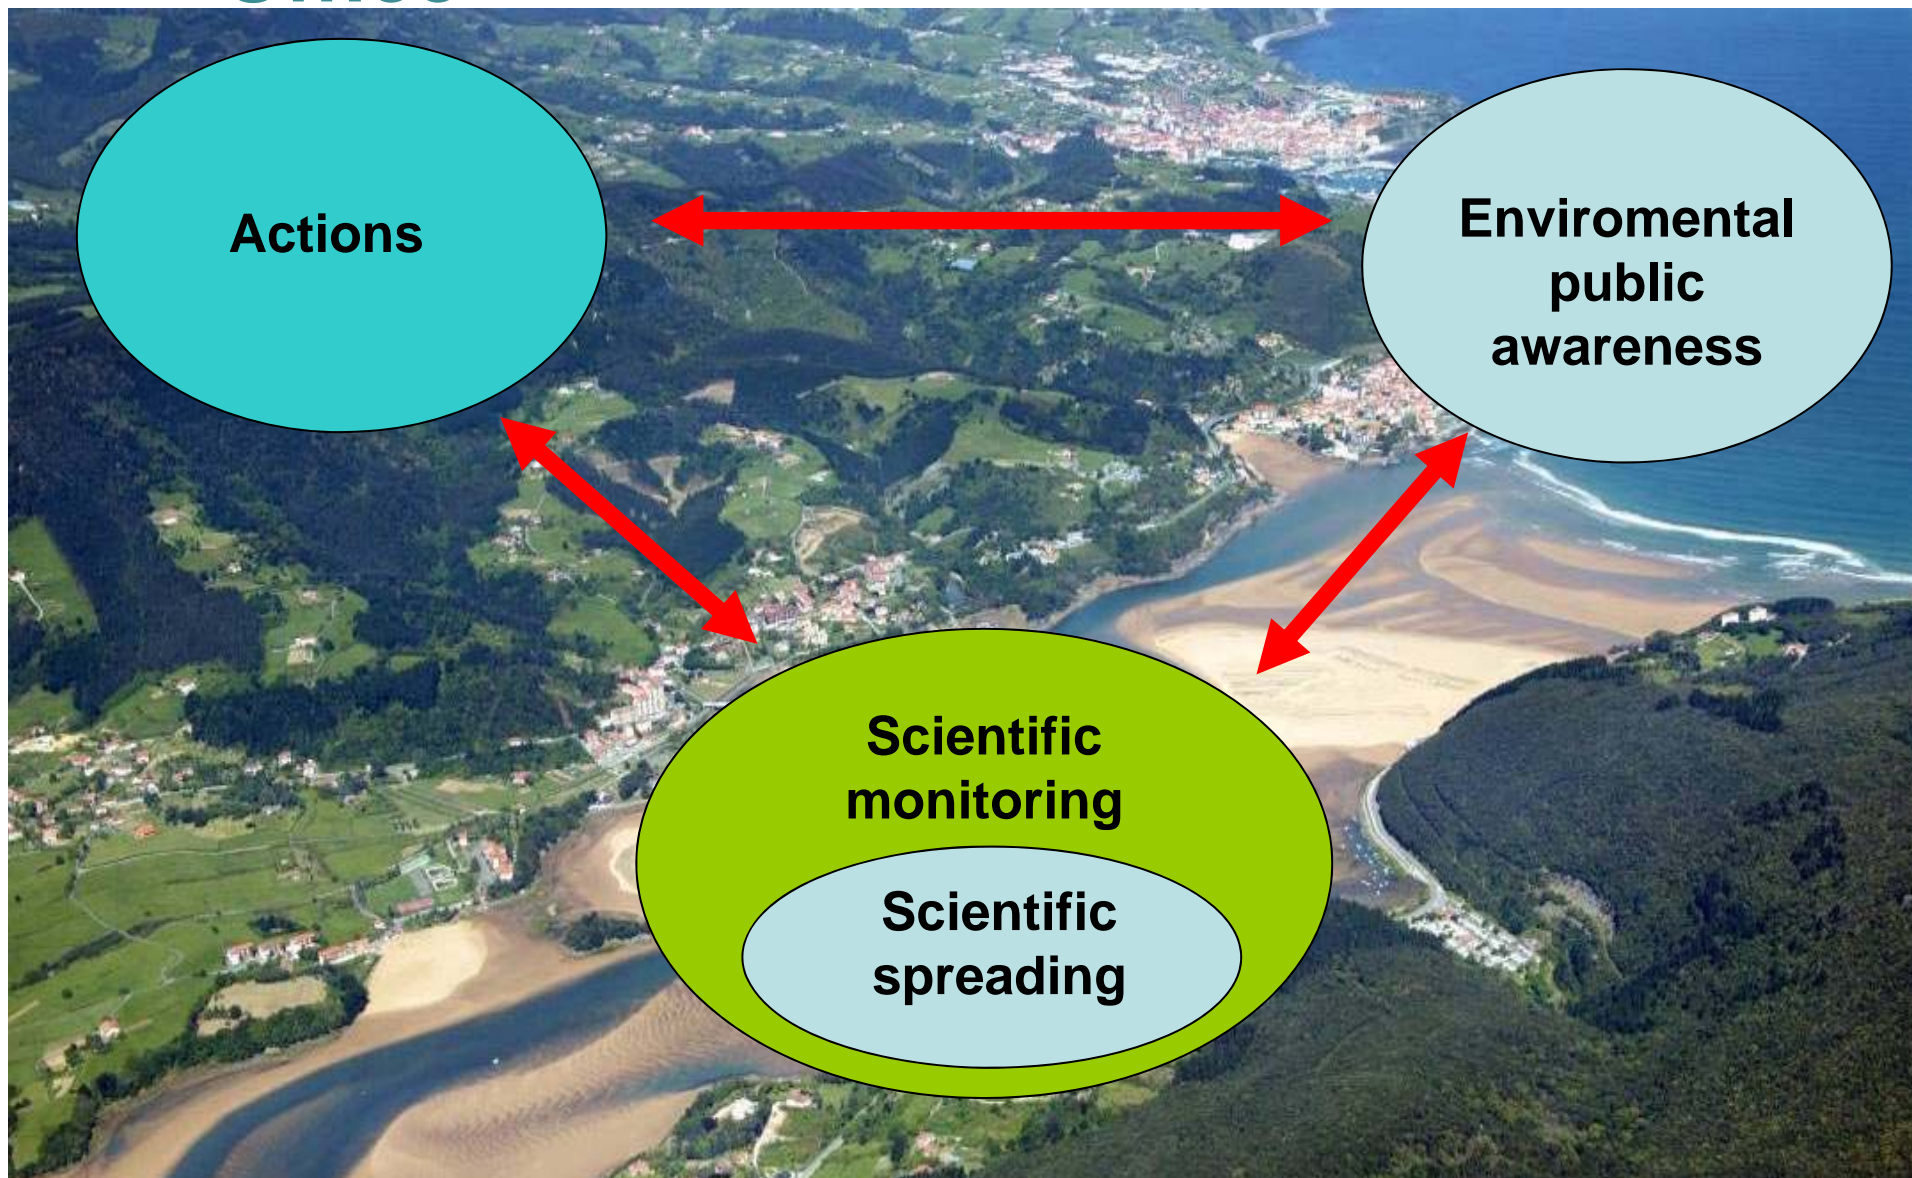

Cooperation Council

- This is the body for involving the public, formed of the associations and people who wish to participate in the Board's management.
 - The President of this Council can speak and vote in the Board.
-

Urdaibai Technical Office

- Administrative Unit depending on the Basque Government.
 - To advise the Board and manage the daily work of the Reserve.
-

Projects led by Urdaibai Technical Office

REGULATIONS & ACTION PLANS

All of these regulations are especially applicable to non-urban development areas.

Law 5/1989 on the Protection and Management of the Urdaibai Biosphere Reserve

Master Plan for Use and Management 1993 2003 2016

Conservation

Logistical support

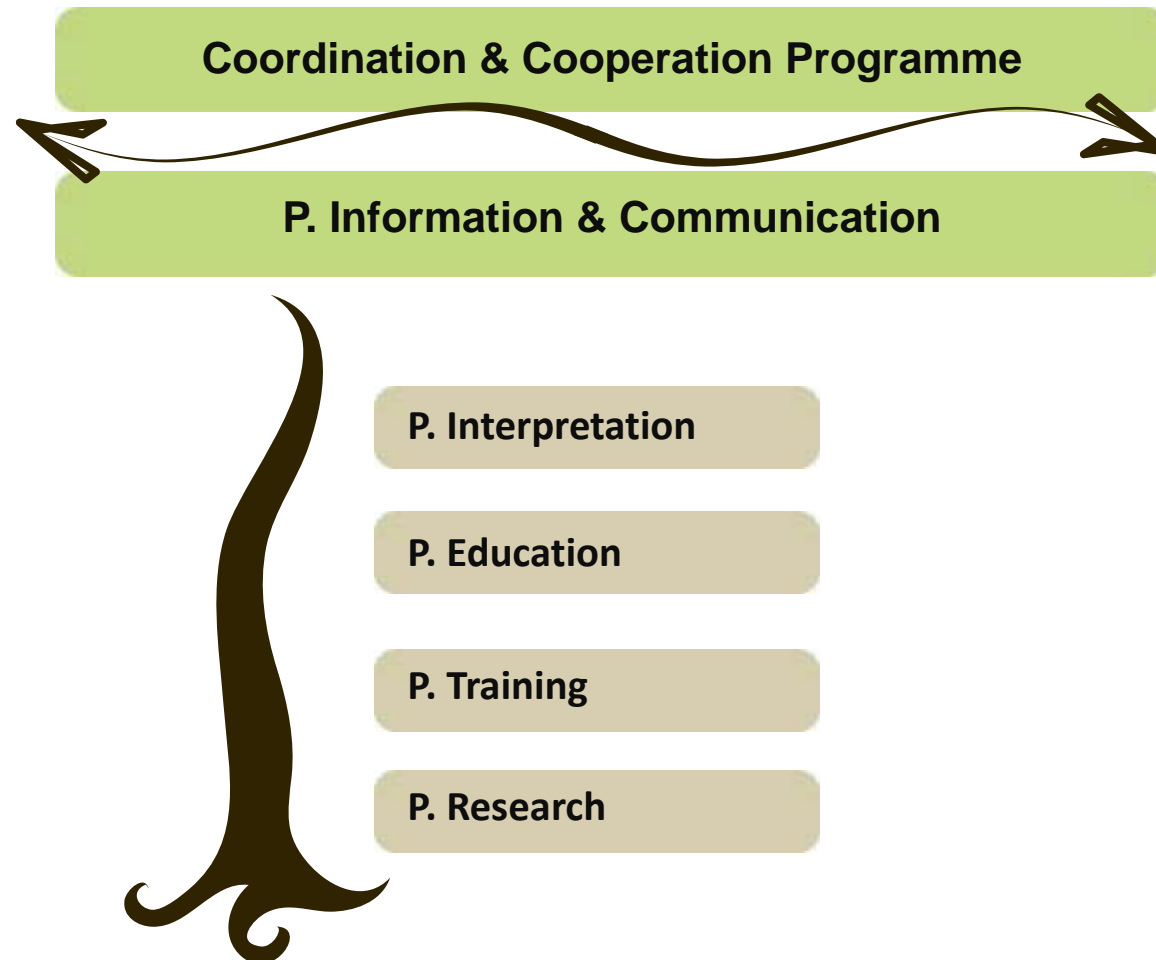

Sustainable development

Natura 2000
Management Plan
2014

Plan for Interpretation,
Research, Training and Education in Sustainability
1997
2015

Plan for the Amortization and Development of Socioeconomic Activities
1998

NEW MODEL OF ORGANISATION FOR A COLLABORATIVE NETWORK

*Eskerrik asko!
Thank you very much!*

www.euskadi.net/urdaibai