

Regional Meeting on Gender Assessment in Teacher Education in Asia

30 – 31 May 2017, Bangkok, Thailand

Objectives

1. Share and review preliminary findings of the five national gender assessment in teacher education;
2. Share experience and lessons learned from the project implementation among the participating countries;
3. Discuss the situation and training needs of policymakers and planners in formulating gender-responsive teacher policies; and
4. Prepare action plans for conducting a situation and training needs analysis at the country level.

Output

1. Summary of preliminary findings and analysis of the national gender assessment of teacher education;
2. Documented lessons learned from project implementation in the participating countries;
3. Inputs for developing the framework for a situation and training needs analysis of policymakers and planners in formulating gender-responsive teacher policies; and
4. National action plans for conducting a situation and training needs analysis of policymakers and planners.