Dear Journalists,

Advocacy Policy Institute, supported by UNESCO and the Embassy of Sweden and in close cooperation with the UN Office of High Commissioner for Human Rights (UNOHCHR) and Cambodian Human Rights Action Committee (CHRAC), is implementing a consultation on the Access to Information legislation with the human rights sector in Cambodia. The purpose of the forum is to collect and compile additional information and recommendations on the legislation from civil society organizations working in the field of human rights.

The aim of the forum is to understand the information needs of institutions which are working on promoting human rights. The forum will offer a platform for participants to reflect on the types of information needed to improve the human rights situation in Cambodia and mechanisms for efficient information access and dissemination.

The result of the forum will be presented to the government and the Access to Information Technical Working Group which is co-chaired by the Ministry of Information and UNESCO.

All journalists are invited to cover this event at the ORCHIDEE Pasteur Restaurant on Friday, 7th August 2015, 8:00 am – 5:00 pm.
