TERMS AND CONDITIONS IFCD 8th CALL

In order to submit the application using the IFCD online Application Form, the applicant must review and agree to the three (3) terms and conditions below:

1. Commit to respecting the provisions of paragraph 25 of the Guidelines.

Paragraph 25 of the Guidelines on the Use of the Resources of the International Fund for Cultural Diversity states: "The beneficiaries shall submit a mandatory descriptive, analytical and financial report on the execution of the project and the realization of expected results<sup>1</sup> to the Secretariat. The report must be presented using the reporting forms provided by the Secretariat in order for the beneficiary to receive its final payment. No financial contributions for new projects will be allocated to beneficiaries who have not received their final payment."

2. Acknowledge that, in the case of approval, a funding contract will be signed both by UNESCO and the applicant.

UNESCO will establish a contract for projects approved for funding in March following the year of the application submission and all payments made by UNESCO to finance the project will be transferred in US dollars, in three separate installments (50% of the total amount approved at the start of the project, another 30% mid-way and the remaining 20% once all activities have been completed and the final reports are submitted). The applicant commits to producing a financial management plan, described in section 2.8 of the Project Description, and to devising a preliminary monthly plan for cash inflow and outflow to ensure that the necessary funds are available and can be advanced by the applicant to allow for the timely implementation of activities.

3. Certify that all information contained in this application is truthful.

The applicant also certifies that any documents provided in support of the application are authentic and accurate.

<sup>1</sup> Namely, the project objectives and outputs/deliverables.
