4. Adopts, on an exceptional basis, the transitional timetable presented in Annex 3 to this Decision for the first inscriptions on the List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in Need of Urgent Safeguarding in 2009.

ANNEX 1: Operational directives for inscription on the List of Intangible Cultural Heritage in Need of Urgent Safeguarding

The nomination process

1. Submitting States Parties are requested to use the specified nomination format for proposals for inscriptions on the Urgent Safeguarding List and to involve the communities, groups and, where applicable, individuals concerned in the preparation of their nominations.
2. States Parties are encouraged to jointly submit multi-national nominations when an element is found on the territory of more than one State Party.
3. A State Party may withdraw a nomination it has submitted at any time prior to evaluation by the Committee, without prejudice to its right to benefit from international assistance under the Convention.

Examination of nominations

4. With a view to their evaluation by the Committee, nominations shall be examined by preferably more than one advisory organization accredited in conformity with Article 9.1 of the Convention, and/or by public or private bodies and/or private persons with recognized competence in the field of intangible cultural heritage, in conformity with Article 8.4 of the Convention. No nomination will be examined by (a) national(s) of the State(s) submitting the nomination.
5. Each examination shall include assessment of the viability of the element and of the sufficiency and feasibility of the safeguarding plan. It shall also include assessment of the risk of its disappearing, due either to the lack of means for safeguarding and protecting it, or to processes of globalization and social transformation.
6. The reports of these examinations shall include a recommendation to the Committee to inscribe, or not to inscribe, the nominated element.

Evaluation and decision by the Committee for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage

7. The Secretariat will transmit to the Committee an overview of all nominations including summaries, examination reports, and any reactions thereto by the States Parties concerned. The nomination files and examination reports will also be made available to States Parties for their consultation.
8. After evaluation, the Committee decides whether an element should or should not be inscribed on the Urgent Safeguarding List.

Nominations to be processed on an extremely urgent basis

9. In case of extreme urgency, the Committee may invite submission of a nomination on an accelerated schedule. The Committee, in consultation with the State(s) Party(ies) concerned, shall evaluate the nomination as quickly as possible after its submission, in accordance with a procedure to be established by the Committee on a case by case basis.

10.	Cases of extreme urgency may be brought to the attention of the Committee by any State Party, including the State(s) Party(ies) on whose territory the element is located, by the community concerned or by an advisory organization.
Removal of elements from the Urgent Safeguarding List
11.	An element shall be removed from the Urgent Safeguarding List by the Committee when it determines, after assessment of the implementation of the safeguarding plan, that the element no longer satisfies one or more criteria for inscription on that list.
Transfer from one List to the other
12.	An element may not simultaneously be inscribed on the Urgent Safeguarding List and the Representative List. A State Party may request that an element be transferred from one List to the other. Such a request must demonstrate that the element satisfies all of the criteria for the List to which transfer is requested, and shall be submitted according to the established procedures and deadlines for nominations.
Updating and publication of the Urgent Safeguarding List
13.	The nomination files and examination reports of elements inscribed on the List shall be available for consultation at the Secretariat and, to the extent possible, made available on-line for general access.
14.	Upon request of the Committee, the Secretariat publishes the updated Urgent Safeguarding List annually, primarily through the website of the Convention. A printed version will be published every two years, on the occasion of the session of the General Assembly of the States Parties.
15.	Timetable – Overview of procedures
	Phase 1: Preparation and submission

ANNEX 2: Operational directives for inscription on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity
The nomination process
16.	Submitting States Parties are requested to use the specified nomination format for proposals for inscriptions on the Representative List and to involve the communities, groups and, where applicable, individuals concerned in the preparation of their nominations.
17.	States Parties are encouraged to jointly submit multi-national nominations when an element is found on the territory of more than one State Party.
Examination of nominations
18.	Examination of nominations shall be accomplished by a subsidiary body of the Committee established in accordance with Rule 21 of its Rules of Procedure.

19.	The examination made by the subsidiary body shall include assessment of the nomination's conformity with the inscription criteria.
20.	The examination reports shall include a recommendation to the Committee to inscribe, or not to inscribe, the nominated element.
21.	A State Party may withdraw a nomination it has submitted at any time prior to evaluation by the Committee.
Evaluation and decision by the Committee for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage
22.	The subsidiary body will provide to the Committee an overview of all nomination files and a report of their examinations, which will also be made available by the Secretariat to States Parties for their consultation.
23.	After evaluation the Committee decides whether an element should or should not be inscribed on the Representative List.
24.	If the Committee decides that an element should not be inscribed on the Representative List, the nomination may not be resubmitted to the Committee for inscription on this List, before four years have passed.
Removal of items from the Representative List
25.	An element shall be removed from the Representative List when the Committee determines that it no longer satisfies one or more criteria for inscription on that list.
Transfer from one List to the other
26.	An element may not simultaneously be inscribed on the Representative List and the Urgent Safeguarding List. A State Party may request that an element be transferred from one List to the other. Such a request must demonstrate that the element satisfies all of the criteria for the List to which transfer is requested, and shall be submitted according to the established procedures and deadlines for nominations.
Updating and publication of the Representative List
27.	The nomination files and examination reports of elements inscribed on the List shall be available for consultation at the Secretariat and, to the extent possible, made available on-line for general access.
28.	Upon request of the Committee, the Secretariat publishes the updated Representative List annually, primarily through the website of the Convention. A printed version will be published every two years, on the occasion of the session of the General Assembly of the States Parties.

4.	Budget that has not been committed at the end of the biennium can be carried over to the next financial period and shall be used primarily for the replenishment of the Reserve Fund.
5.	For the period 1 January 2010 to 30 June 2010, one third of the amount established for the eighteen month period July 2008 to December 2009 should be allocated. This may be readjusted and reviewed during the General Assembly to be held in mid 2010.

DECISION 2.COM 11

The Committee,

1. Having examined document ITH/07/2.COM/CONF.208/11+Corr.;
2. Recalling the articles of the Convention concerning international assistance, in particular Article 7 (g)(ii) and Articles 19 to 24;
3. Further recalling Resolution 1.GA 7A of the General Assembly;
4. Submits to the General Assembly for approval the operational directives on international assistance as annexed to this Decision, and recommends that the General Assembly decide that the deadlines for submission of requests for preparatory assistance for the purpose of the first inscriptions on the Urgent Safeguarding List (2009) shall be the deadlines set out in the transitional timetable adopted by the Committee in its Decision 2.COM 6;
5. Adopts the Format for requesting international assistance as annexed to this Decision.

ANNEX 1: Operational directives for international assistance
Purposes and forms of international assistance
1.	International assistance provided to States Parties for the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage is supplementary to national efforts for safeguarding (Article 24.2).
2.	The Committee may receive, evaluate and approve requests for any purpose and for any form of international assistance mentioned in Articles 20 and 21 of the Convention respectively, depending on the available resources. Priority is given to requests for international assistance concerning: <ol style="list-style-type: none">a. the safeguarding of the heritage inscribed on the Urgent Safeguarding List (Article 20 (a));b. the preparation of inventories in the sense of Articles 11 and 12 (Article 20 (b));c. support for programmes, projects and activities carried out at the national, subregional and regional levels aimed at the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage (Article 20 (c)).
3.	International assistance as described in Articles 20 and 21 may be granted on an emergency basis as mentioned in Article 22 of the Convention (Emergency assistance).
4.	The Committee may also receive, evaluate and approve requests for preparatory assistance aimed to help the elaboration of requests for inscription on the Urgent Safeguarding List referred to in Article 17 of the Convention and for proposals as referred to in Article 18 (Preparatory assistance).

Eligibility and selection criteria
5.	All States Parties are eligible to request international assistance.
6.	When evaluating requests for international assistance, the Committee shall take into account the principle of equitable geographical distribution and the special needs of developing countries. The Committee may also take into account whether: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. the request implies cooperation at the bilateral, regional and/or international levels; b. the assistance may have a multiplier effect and may stimulate financial and technical contributions from other sources.
7.	The Committee's decisions on granting assistance will be based on the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. The community(ies)/group(s) and/or individual(s) concerned were involved in the preparation of the request and will be involved in the implementation of the proposed activities, and in their evaluation and follow-up; b. The amount of assistance requested is appropriate; c. The proposed activities are well conceived and feasible; d. The project may have lasting results; e. The beneficiary State Party shares the cost of the activities for which international assistance is provided (Article 24.2 of the Convention), within the limits of its resources; f. The assistance aims at building up or reinforcing capacities in the field of safeguarding intangible cultural heritage; g. The beneficiary State Party has implemented previously financed activities, if any, in line with all regulations and any conditions applied thereto.
Procedure for the submission of international assistance requests
8.	States Parties may submit to the Committee requests for international assistance. Such requests may also be jointly submitted by two or more States Parties.
9.	Requests for international assistance have to be submitted to the Secretariat by using the application form presented in Annex  of these Operational Directives.
10.	Requests for preparatory assistance should be received by the Secretariat by 1 September two years before the envisaged evaluation by the Committee of requests for inscription on the Urgent Safeguarding List foreseen under Article 17 of the Convention, or by 1 September one year before the envisaged evaluation by the Committee of proposals of programmes, projects and activities as foreseen under Article 18.
11.	The Secretariat shall assess the completeness of the request and may ask for additional information. It shall inform the requesting State(s) Party(ies) about the possible evaluation dates of the request.

12.	The Secretariat shall seek examination for complete requests over USD 25 000.
13.	The Secretariat shall submit complete requests to the relevant authority for evaluation and approval: (In the table below "Other assistance" refers to all assistance other than emergency or preparatory assistance.)
Budget	Deadline for submission		Authority for approval
Less than USD 25 000	Emergency assistance	At any time	Bureau of the Committee
	Preparatory assistance	1 September
	Other assistance	Any time
USD 25 000 or more	Emergency assistance	At any time	Committee
	Other assistance	1 May
14.	The Secretariat shall communicate the decision concerning the granting of assistance to the requesting party(ies) within two weeks following the decision. The Secretariat shall reach agreement with the requesting party(ies) on the details of the assistance.
15.	The assistance will be subject to monitoring, reporting and evaluation, as appropriate.

ANNEX 2: Format for requesting international assistance

- States Parties submitting requests for international assistance are encouraged to consult the Secretariat during the preparation of their request. The Secretariat may provide examples of successful international assistance requests.

DECISION 2.COM 12

The Committee,

1. Having examined document ITH/07/2.COM/CONF.208/12;
2. Recalling Resolution 1.GA 7A, whereby the General Assembly requested the Committee to submit to it for approval inter alia draft operational directives and selection criteria at its second ordinary session;
3. Submits to the General Assembly for approval the provisions of the operational directives for implementing Article 18 of the Convention, as annexed to this decision.

ANNEX: Operational directives for programmes, projects and activities that best reflect the principles and objectives of the Convention for the purposes of promotion and dissemination
The proposal and selection process
1.	States Parties are encouraged to propose national, subregional or regional programmes, projects and activities for safeguarding intangible heritage to the Committee for selection and promotion as best reflecting the principles and objectives of the Convention (Article 18.1).

2.	In its selection and promotion of safeguarding programmes, projects and activities, the Committee shall pay special attention to the needs of developing countries and the principle of equitable geographic distribution, while strengthening South-South and North-South-South cooperation.
3.	Such programmes, projects and activities may be completed, in progress, or planned at the time they are proposed to the Committee for selection and promotion.
4.	States Parties may submit proposals individually or jointly. The Committee encourages the submission of subregional or regional programmes, projects and activities as well as those undertaken jointly by States Parties in geographically discontinuous areas.
5.	States Parties may request preparatory assistance for the elaboration of such proposals (Article 18.3) in accordance with the provisions concerning international assistance, i.e. Articles 20-24.
6.	Submitting States Parties are requested to use the proposal format presented in Annex . A proposal shall be submitted by 1 March of the year in which the Committee is requested to evaluate it.
7.	Initial examination of proposals will be accomplished by a working group of the Committee to be established by it during a session. The working group shall provide the Committee with its opinion of the merits of proposals and a summary recommendation.
8.	The Committee decides whether or not to select a programme, project or activity.
9.	At each session the Committee may explicitly call for proposals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. characterized by international cooperation as mentioned in Article 19 of the Convention, and b. focusing on specific priority aspects of safeguarding.
Criteria for selection and promotion
10.	From among the programmes, projects or activities proposed to it, the Committee shall select those that best satisfy all of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. The programme, project or activity involves safeguarding, as defined in Article 2.3 of the Convention. b. The programme, project or activity promotes the coordination of efforts for safeguarding intangible cultural heritage on regional, subregional and/or international levels. c. The programme, project or activity reflects the principles and objectives of the Convention. d. If already completed, the programme, project or activity has demonstrated effectiveness in contributing to the viability of the intangible heritage concerned. If still underway or planned, it can reasonably be expected to contribute substantially to the viability of the intangible heritage concerned. e. The programme, project or activity has been or will be implemented with the

	participation of the community, group or, if applicable, individuals concerned and with their free, prior and informed consent. f. The programme, project or activity may serve as a subregional, regional or international model, as the case may be, for safeguarding activities. g. The proposing State(s) Party(ies), implementing body(ies), and community, group or, if applicable, individuals concerned are willing to cooperate in the dissemination of best practices, if their programme, project or activity is selected. h. The programme, project or activity features experiences that are susceptible to an assessment of their results. i. The programme, project or activity is primarily applicable to the particular needs of developing countries.
Promotion and dissemination
11.	The Committee shall encourage research, documentation, publication and dissemination of good practices and models with international cooperation in generating safeguarding measures and creating favourable conditions for such measures that have been evolved by States Parties in the implementation of selected programmes, projects and activities, with or without assistance.
12.	The Committee shall establish, keep up to date, and publish a register of programmes, projects and activities that it has selected as best reflecting the principles and objectives of the Convention.
13.	The Committee shall encourage States Parties to create favourable conditions for the implementation of such programmes, projects and activities.
14.	In addition to the register of selected programmes, projects and activities, the Committee shall compile and make available information about the measures and methodologies used or to be used, and experiences gained, if any.
15.	The Committee shall encourage research on and evaluation of the effectiveness of safeguarding measures included in the programmes, projects and activities that it has selected and shall promote international cooperation in such research and evaluation.
16.	On the basis of experiences gained and lessons learned in these and other safeguarding programmes, projects and activities, the Committee shall provide guidance on best practices and make recommendations on measures for safeguarding intangible heritage (Article 7(b)).
