

KEY FACTS AND FIGURES ON GERMANY / UNESCO COOPERATION

1. Membership in UNESCO: since 11 July 1951.
  - The Federal Republic of Germany (FRG) became a UNESCO member on 11 July 1951. The German Democratic Republic (GDR) for its part had joined UNESCO in November 1972. They both joined the UN in September 1973.
  - Following the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 and through the accession of the GDR to the Federal Republic of Germany, with effect from 3 October 1990, the two German States united to form one sovereign State. As from the above date of reunification, the FRG acts in the UN and UNESCO under the designation “Germany”.
