Développement
des médias

RAPPORT MONDIAL 2017/18

Take away / Le bilan

Press freedom is in major flux, pulled forward in some respects, but going backwards in more.

- Media freedom: mainly negative trends
- Media pluralism: yes ... & no
- Media independence: on the back foot
- Journalists' safety: it could even have been worse!

La liberté de la presse est en pleine mutation, tirée vers l'avant à certains égards, mais reculant de plus en plus.

- Liberté des médias: tendances essentiellement négatives
- Le pluralisme des médias: oui ... & non
- Indépendance des médias: en retard
- La sécurité des journalistes: ça aurait même pu être pire!

Environment for news institutions:

UNESCO assesses this using the frame of the Windhoek Declaration

- Freedom
- Independence
- Safety
- Having a plurality of media choices

All with gender-sensitivity

L'environnement pour les organismes de la presse:

L'UNESCO évalue ceci en utilisant le cadre de la Déclaration de Windhoek

- Liberté
- Indépendance
- Sécurité
- Avoir une pluralité de choix de médias

Tous avec sensibilité au genre

Trends in Media freedom

CONTINUED LEGAL RESTRICTIONS, including defamation, insult, blasphemy and lèse-majesté laws

Number of Internet shutdowns*

INCREASE IN BLOCKING, filtering and shutdowns

DIGITAL MEDIA have raised new challenges for privacy and journalist source protection

NATIONAL SECURITY CONCERNS, states of emergency and anti-terrorism laws have curtailed freedom of expression

Countries with freedom of Information laws

INCREASED RECOGNITION of the public's right to access information

R.O.A.M.

UNESCO MEMBER STATES HAVE GIVEN SUPPORT FOR INTERNET UNIVERSALITY, for an internet that is Rights-based, Open, Accessible and Multi-Stakeholder (R.O.A.M principles)

Trends in Media pluralism

Percentage of Individuals with access to the Internet*

NEARLY HALF THE WORLD'S POPULATION now has access to the internet

THE AVAILABILITY OF MEDIA CONTENT has dramatically increased, largely through sharing and user-generated content on social media

RATING

THE PRACTICE OF 'ZERO-RATING' has increased pluralism in terms of access, but it has raised concerns about limiting net neutrality

NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION has fallen in all regions, except in Asia and the Pacific

WOMEN REMAIN UNDERREPRESENTED IN MEDIA, making up only:

1 IN 4 MEDIA DECISION-MAKERS

1 IN 3 REPORTERS

1 IN 5 EXPERTS INTERVIEWED

ALGORITHM-RANKED search results and social media news feeds have contributed to the creation of 'echo chambers' and 'filter bubbles', where people reinforce their beliefs rather than dialogue across differences

EXPANDED ACCESS

NARROWED CHOICE

Trends in Media independence

RISE IN RHETORIC AGAINST THE MEDIA by political figures is encouraging self-censorship and undermining media's credibility

INCREASED DEPENDENCE ON government and corporate subsidies is linked to disruptions in business models

TRUST IN NEWS MEDIA is seen to have declined in some regions

BROADCAST LICENSING continues to be driven by political and commercial interests

SELF-REGULATORY BODIES, which can support the exercise of professional standards while maintaining editorial independence, have grown in post-conflict and developing countries

INCREASED SELF-REGULATORY EFFORTS BY INTERNET INTERMEDIARIES are promoting media and information literacy, counteracting 'fake news' and tackling online abuse

VULNERABILITY/CAPTURE

RESILIENCE/RESISTANCE

Trends in the Safety of journalists

530 JOURNALISTS WERE KILLED, Between 2012 and 2016

MAP OF JOURNALISTS KILLED BY REGION, 2012 - 2016

- Western Europe and North America
- Central and Eastern Europe
- Africa
- Asia and the Pacific
- Latin America and the Caribbean
- Arab States

IMPUNITY FOR CRIMES AGAINST JOURNALISTS

9 in 10 CASES REMAIN UNPUNISHED

GROWING THREATS TO DIGITAL SAFETY include cyberattacks, surveillance, hacking, intimidation and rise in online harassment, especially of women journalists

MEMBER STATES HAVE BECOME MORE RESPONSIVE to UNESCO's requests on the safety of journalists, 2013-2017

UN PLAN OF ACTION on the safety of journalists and the issue of impunity

WIDENING ATTACKS

INCREASING RESPONSES
