

UNESCO Condemns Killing of Journalists Assassinated Journalists in Nigeria

Ikechukwu Onubogu

(Nigeria)

Cameraman at Anambra

Killed on 12 November in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Famous Giobaro

(Nigerian)

Desk editor for public radio Globe FM

Killed on 16 April 2017 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Ikechukwu Udendu

(Nigerian)

Editor of monthly newspaper Anambra News

Killed on 12 January 2013 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Enenche Akogwu

(Nigerian)

Reporter and cameraman for the independent television stations, Channels TV

Killed on 20 January 2012 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Nansok Sallah

(Nigerian)

News editor of the government-owned radio station Highland FM

Killed on 18 January 2012 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Zakariya Isa

(Nigerian)

Journalist for the Nigerian Television Authority

Killed on 22 October 2011 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

UNESCO Condemns Killing of Journalists Assassinated Journalists in Nigeria

Bayo Ohu

(Nigerian)

Assistant news editor of the Nigerian daily newspaper, The Guardian

Killed on 20 September 2009 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Paul Abayomi Ogundeji

(Nigerian)

Member of the editorial board, newspaper This Day

Killed on 17 August 2008 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)

Godwin Agbroko

(Nigerian)

Head of editorial board of the daily This Day

Killed on 22 December 2006 in Nigeria

[\[UNESCO Statement\]](#)