SELECTION PROCESS

Participants from British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Curacao, Sint Maarten and Suriname:

Candidates are asked to submit applications to the National Commissions/counterparts of their country by 14 September 2012, following which the National Commissions/counterparts will select one candidate and submit his or her application to UNESCO for confirmation by 28 September 2012.

All other applicants

Once candidates have submitted their applications to their National Commission by 22 August 2012, it will go through various stages:

1. Submission by National Commission - after completing its pre-selection, determining that candidate profiles corresponds to the skills and abilities required, respective National Commissions will submit the applications to the Intangible Cultural Heritage Section at UNESCO by 31 August 2012. Each country may submit a maximum of 5 applications.
2. Examination- applications are examined by the Intangible Cultural Heritage Section.
3. Selection- the Intangible Cultural Heritage Section will inform candidates directly if their application is successful (their respective National Commissions will be notified).

Additional Information: all selected candidates will be expected to confirm their availability to attend the forum as well as to provide additional information as requested by UNESCO. All boarding and travel expenses of participants to the forum will be covered by UNESCO.

Please note that the contact details of all pre-selected and selected candidates will be stored in our database to be utilized for future activities involving youth participation.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR INTEREST.
