

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO-JAPAN PRIZE on Education for Sustainable Development

Call for nominations 2017

DEADLINE → 2 MAY 2017 (midnight, Paris time)

The UNESCO-Japan Prize on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) showcases outstanding, effective and innovative projects in the field of ESD. Funded by the Government of Japan, it consists of US $150,000 per year for three recipients. The Prize was established in the framework of the Global Action Programme on ESD (GAP). This is the third edition of the Prize.

© Chiyama ESD Promotion Commission

Education
2030

→ WHO CAN NOMINATE?

Governments of UNESCO Member States via their Permanent Delegation to UNESCO, and Non-Governmental Organizations in official partnership with UNESCO (NGOs). Each Permanent Delegation or NGO can make up to 3 nominations.

→ WHO CAN BE NOMINATED?

Individuals, institutions, organizations or other entities engaged in ESD. Nominations must focus on a specific ESD project or programme of the nominee.

For more details on the eligibility and selection criteria, see: <https://en.unesco.org/prize-esd/selection-criteria>

Interested candidates should get in touch with their National Commission for UNESCO.

→ HOW TO NOMINATE?

Online, in English or French, before midnight of 2 May 2017 (Paris time), at:

<http://unesco.org/esd>
(platform only accessible for Member States and NGOs in official partnership; accounts for nominees can be created at the request of a Member State)

MORE INFORMATION

<http://en.unesco.org/prize-esd/nomination>
Contact: esdprize@unesco.org

