

National Report on the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict

SN	ITEM	ACTION
1.	Article 3 – Safeguarding of Cultural Property Obligation of High Contracting Parties to adopt the relevant peacetime safeguarding measures against the foreseeable effects of an armed conflict	Not yet implemented The amendments to the National Heritage Fund Act 2003 for the inclusion of the provisions of the 1954 Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property are still being worked out
2.	Article 7 – Military measures Obligation of the High Contracting Parties to introduce in their military regulations or instructions, such provisions as may ensure observance of the Convention High Contracting Parties also undertake to establish within their armed forces, services whose purpose will be to secure respect for cultural property	Not yet implemented To be included in the amendments to the National Heritage Fund Act
3.	Chapter V – The distinctive emblem Does your country mark cultural property with the distinctive emblem of the Convention? If not, for what reasons?	No To be included in the amendments to the National Heritage Fund Act 2003
4.	Article 25 - Dissemination of the Convention The manner in which the provisions of the Convention and the Regulations for its execution are being disseminated in your country within the military	Follow up on the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention is being monitored by the National Committee on Humanitarian Law chaired by the Prime Minister’s Office. This Committee comprises, amongst others, representatives of the Police Department.
5.	Article 26(1) – Official translations Official Translation in the	No need for translation

SN	ITEM	ACTION
	language of your country
6.	Article 28 – Sanctions Obligation of High Contracting Parties to take, within the framework of their ordinary criminal jurisdiction all necessary steps to prosecute and impose penal or disciplinary sanctions upon those persons who commit a breach of the Convention	Not yet implemented To be included in the amendments to the National Heritage Fund Act 2003
7.	1954 (First) Protocol	Not acceded to
8.	Resolution II of the 1954 Hague Convention Whether there is a national advisory committee in your country in accordance with the hope expressed by the Conference in Resolution II	No national advisory committee

18 March 2009

Ministry of Education, Culture and Human Resources (Culture Division)