The Head of UNESCO-UNEVOC visits GIFTS (Korea)

The head of UNESCO-UNEVOC, Dr. Shyamal Majumdar, was welcomed at GIFTS of HRD Korea (Incheon), one of the UNEVOC Centres in South Korea on 23 October before his participation in the "2018 East and Southeast Asia Cluster Network Consolidation Workshop" (Seoul, 24-25 October) held by KRIVET (other UNEVOC Centre in Korea).

Dr. Majumdar went for a facility tour at GIFTS where he met young students from vocational high school receiving vocational technical training of automobile, carpentry, welding, IT programming. He commented that HRD Korea could utilize its vocational training facilities for invitation training as an UNEVOC centre.

He also discussed the future collaboration between UNEVOC centres with Unduck Kim, the director of Global HRD Cooperation Team of GIFTS.

As HRD Korea is planning a joint-workshop in cooperation with GIZ in coming January, Dr. Majumdar suggested several agendas for the workshop such as Industry 4.0 and Green TVET etc. HRD Korea also plan to visit the UNESCO-UNEVOC International Centre in Bonn after the workshop.
