

BLUE NILE GORGE INCLUDING DEBRELIBANOS MONASTERY

In the morning transfer to the Blue Nile Gorge lying 210km. north of Addis Ababa that precipitates down by 1000 meters below the general elevation. The gorge has a splendor panorama and contrasting vegetation type to the surrounding Shewan plateau.

On the way back to Addis, walk around and pause at the ruin of the so-called 'Portuguese Bridge', enjoy breath-taking scenery and cataracts of waterfalls created by Jemma river, see from close distance the endemic Gelada Baboon, visit the 13th c. Debre Libanos Monastery established by Abune (father) Tekle Haimanot, and the collections at the church museum. The interior of the church
