ANKOBER

In the morning drive to Ankober, the former seat of the Shewan kings and is located 150km.northeast of Addis Ababa. Ankober had served as a tent capital for six Shewan kings. The palace ruin attributed to king Menelik, several churches rich in paintings and manuscripts, along with the splendid geographical feature are awesome assets of Ankober. From the summit of Ankober Palace Lodge you can clearly see the separation point of the highland part of Ethiopia from the rift valley gorge. Enjoy the view of the surrounding superb landscape. There is a chance to see the Gelada baboon troops, the endemic primates to Ethiopia.

Lunch will be either at Ankober Palace Lodge or in Debrebirhan town

In the afternoon drive back to Addis. On the way short stop to visit at Debrebrihan (mountain of light) town renown for wool production.

Transfer to the airport if you have international flight
