

In a small village, there lived a boy called Mbatha. He lived with his mother.

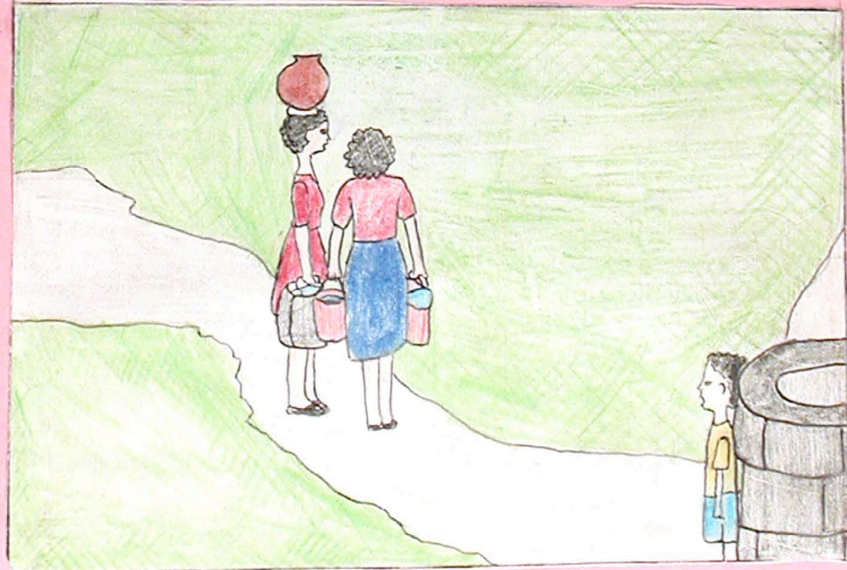

Suddenly, the women heard a strange noise at the well but they ignored it.

One day, he went to fetch water from the village well.

Mbatha knew it was something serious

Meanwhile

On the other side of the forest 'The Boss' had hired two Poachers to get him a healthy Gorilla.

5

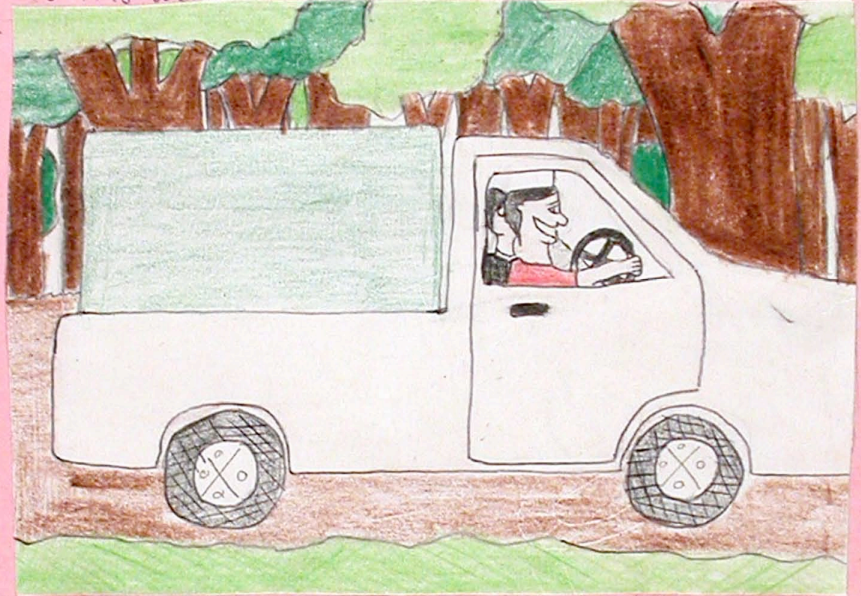

They set a trap and waited with their guns

7

The two men drove to the location where the Gorillas were usually spotted.

6

Later on, A hungry Gorilla came to eat the bananas. But it was shot.

Mbatha ran home and told his mother what he had heard.
His mother refused to believe until...

9

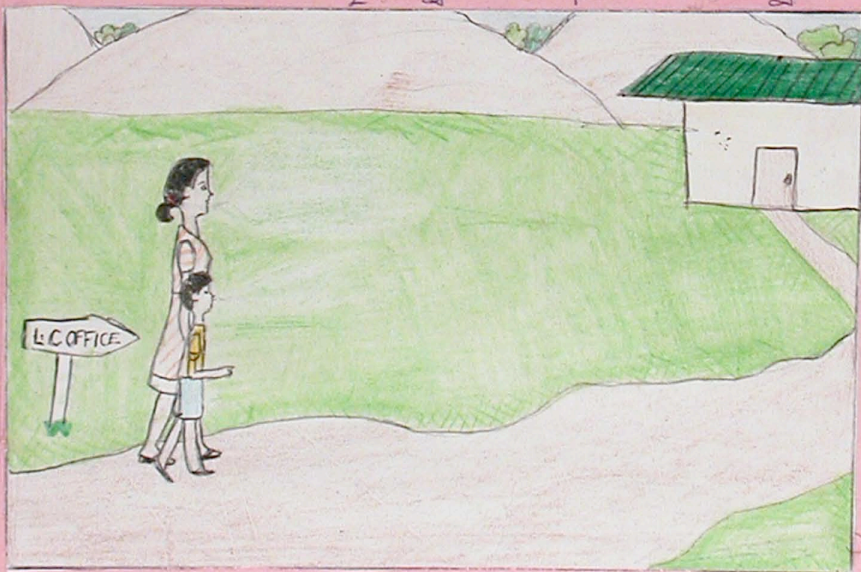

... she heard the gunshot and knew something wasn't right.

10

Mbatha and his mother quickly ran to report to the Village LC.

11

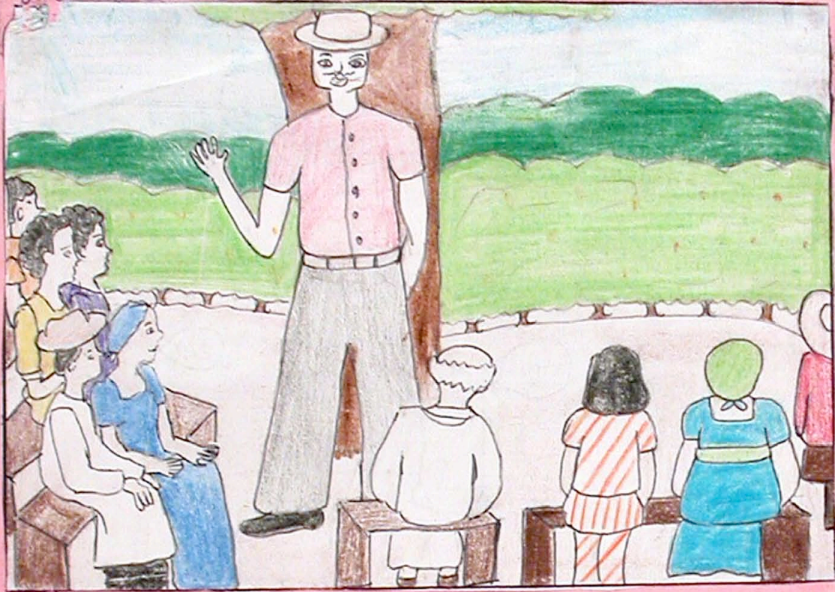

At the L.C's office she explained what had happened. The L.C's, Mr Mawa decided to call for a Village Meeting.

12

At the meeting, the Village discussed the possible ways of getting the POACHERS.

13.

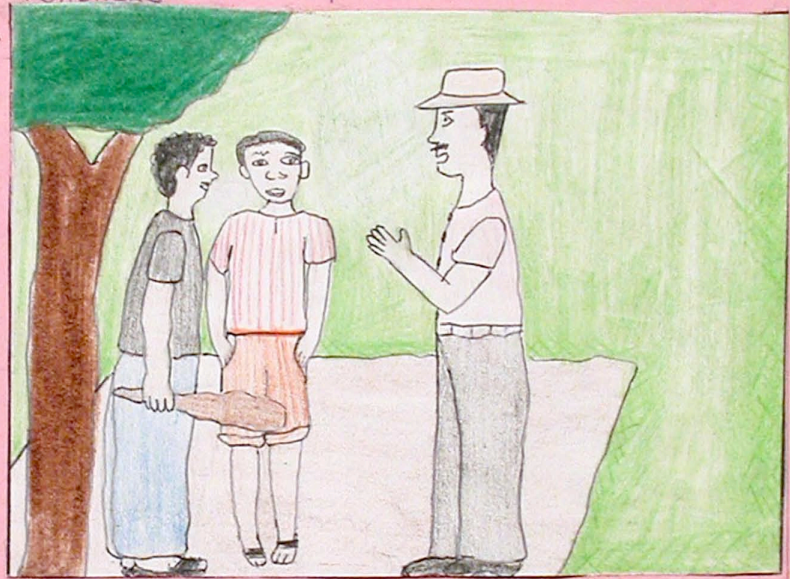

The men searched and found the Gorilla area. They waited in hope of the Poacher's Return.

15.

The LC rounded up men and decided to trap the POACHERS

14.

Later in the night, the Poachers came to bury the evidence and they were apprehended by the men.

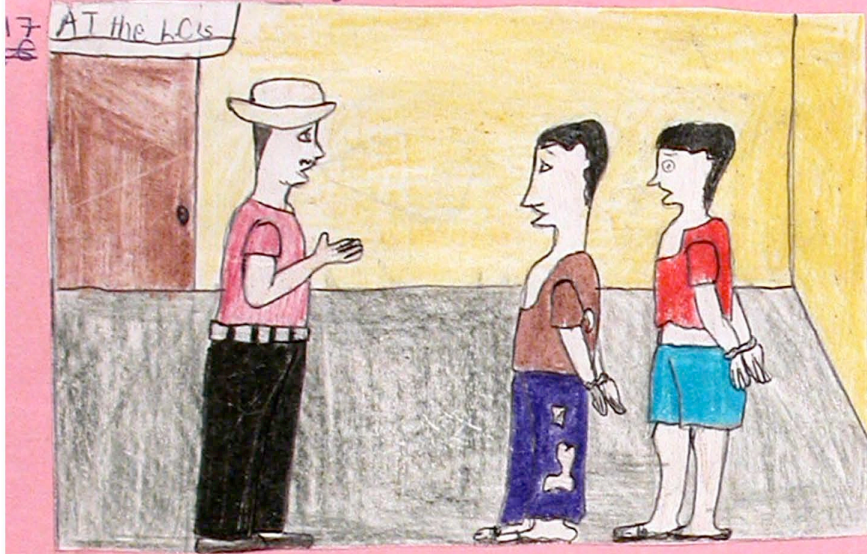

16.

The Poachers were caught.

The LC's then questioned them until they gave in the whereabouts of 'the Boss'.

The Boss was then arrested by the LC and his men.

They were later taken to prison.

A Few months later, the Gorilla Area was recognised as A CONSERVATION ZONE.
