2. Only the Commission and tax and law-enforcement agencies, within the scope of their competence, can regulate, supervise and/or control conformity of the activities of a license holder and the Public Service Broadcaster with the legislation in force.
3. The license holder shall, no later than May 1 each year, submit to the Commission a report on fulfilment of the requirements of this law, the license conditions and Code of Conduct, as well as the plan for the following year's activity and funding sources. The audit report shall be annexed to the main report.
4. The Commission shall set up accounting forms.
5. The Commission can request any information about fulfilment of legislative requirements in force, license conditions and/or Code of Conduct by the license holder. If a license holder breaches the legislation, license conditions and/or Code of Conduct, the Commission is empowered to apply sanctions as determined in the legislation.
6. The Commission is entitled to require information from the Public Service Broadcaster on fulfilment of legislative requirements and the Code of Conduct. In case of violation of these requirements, the Commission is authorized to apply as determined in the legislation.
7. The license holder and the Public Service Broadcaster shall, within 15 days, submit the requested information to the Commission.

Article 71. Sanctions

1. The Commission is authorized to notify in writing a license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster if the regulatory legislation in the field of television and radio broadcasting and/or the Code of Conduct are breached, or decisions of the Commission are not fulfilled as well as cases of license conditions being violated by license holders.
2. The Commission is entitled to impose a fine on the license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster in case of:
 - a) failing to eradicate violations defined by paragraph 1 of this article within the term determined by the Commission or repeated violation.
 - b) violation within 1 year of a license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster being warned for a single breach as determined by paragraph 1 of this article. (28.12.2005 N 2565)
3. Only the Commission is authorized to suspend and/or revoke a license. The resolution of the Commission shall approve suspension and/or revocation of a license.

Article 72. Amount of Fine and Payment Procedures

1. In the case envisaged in this law, Article 71, the Commission is authorized to impose a fine on the license holder. The amount of a fine shall be defined by the Commission and shall not exceed 0.5% of the license holder's annual income, but shall not be less than 2500 GEL.
2. If, within a year of a fine being imposed, the license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster repeatedly breaches the rules determined in Article 70, the Commission is empowered to impose a fine not exceeding 3% of the annual income of the entity and no less than 5000 GEL, or commence public administrative proceedings concerning suspension of a license.
3. The license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster shall be notified in writing about the decision on the penalty within 7 days of the decision being made. The notification shall include the justified reason and basis for the penalty.
4. The license holder and/or the Public Service Broadcaster shall pay the fine within 1 month of receipt of the relevant decision.
5. If a license holder fails to execute the decision on imposition of a sanction, the Executive Department of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia assumes execution of the decision. The fine paid by the license holder shall be transferred to the state budget of Georgia.

Article 73. Suspension of Licensed Activity

1. Suspension of a license means the prohibition of licensed activity until renewal of the licence.
2. The Commission is entitled to consider suspension of a broadcasting licence, if a warning or fine has been already used as a sanction.
3. A license is suspended before eradication of violations specified in Paragraph 2 of this Article, but within three months of a decision on suspension of the license.
4. The decision to suspend a licence, including the motivation and basis for suspension, shall be sent to the license holder within 7 days of the decision being made.
5. The license shall, based on the license holder's application, be renewed after eradication of the violations according to the decision of the Commission.

Article 74. Revocation of a License

1. The basis for revocation of a license may be:
 - a) request of the license holder;
 - b) death of the license holder;
 - c) suspension of licensed activity for more than 3 months or 120 days intermittently within one calendar year;
 - d) expiration of the license suspension period in case the license holder fails to eradicate violations;
 - e) failing to commence licensed activity within the period determined in the decision of the Commission;
2. Only the Commission is entitled to take a decision on revocation of a license.
3. In the case of a license's validity period expiring, it is considered that the license is revoked.
4. A license holder shall be notified about a decision to revoke a license within 7 working days.

Chapter X

The usage of radio frequencies (28.12.2005 N 2565)

Article 75. The usage of radio frequencies

1. Broadcasting frequencies (channels) shall be defined for private and/or community broadcasting license holders carrying out terrestrial broadcasting on the basis of private and/or community broadcasting licenses.
2. The Commission shall grant radio frequencies to the Public Service Broadcaster as well as private and/or community broadcasting license holder carrying out terrestrial broadcasting for assisting technological purposes, in order to ensure the fulfilment of the license conditions. When the license is suspended or renewed, the usage of radio frequencies granted by the Commission for the period of license validity shall be accordingly suspended or renewed.
3. Private and/or community broadcasting license holders carrying out broadcasting by cable network, shall obtain the right of use of radio frequencies for assisting technological purposes by means of an auction under the Georgian law “on electronic communications”, on the basis of a license.
4. The use of radio frequency spectrum without a license or granting is prohibited and punishable under the Administrative Code of Georgia.
