Buddhism is one of the biggest religions in the world.

Le Shan Buddha as the biggest Buddhist statue in China became "World cultural and natural heritage in 1996.

The destination that Patrimonto visiting China is Le Shang which in Si Chuang Province.

Patrimonto is very excited to see the huge statue near the river.

After he arrived, two young guides receipt him.

They make worship at first to express their respect for Buddhist statue.

Then they take some photos to leave their precious images.

After taking photos, Patrimonito discovers a strange phenomenon. There are some bare rocks on Buddhism's toes.

Another problem is that many careless people write some word on my toes. I feel very uncomfortable.

Patrimonito says firmly: "I will help you!"

Then he flies back tell the guides that we must do something to change the situation the Buddham facing.

The guides find many people to brush those traces.

Patrimonito also brushes the Buddham's face. Buddham is very happy.

In all the efforts, Buddham takes on an altogether new aspect.

After finishing work, Patrimonito says goodbye to the guides.

The Buddham says: "Good luck, may Buddham bless you!"

The trip isn't the end, there are many new things are waiting for Patrimonito to explore.
