

Oman

Omanis looking through this report to highlight the role it plays in activating the International Convention for the protection and promotion of cultural expressions in order to enhance the cultural diversity in the country. The report shows a number of measures, which have been taken by the Omani government for the protection of cultural diversity. Some events were held by the government at the local level designed to raise awareness of the importance of the protecting of cultural diversity. The report also includes the efforts of Oman at the international level through its call for a world tolerant and respectful of concerted cultural and civilization diversity. The Sultanate has many efforts to give effect to this aspect at the global level.

The report also indicates the awareness-raising efforts of the government for the protection and promotion of cultural expressions at the individual and society level. Some observations are mentioned, which will form the stages and steps of action in the next phase. And away from the narrative construction, the report came in the form of specific points plus the list of the governmental and civil institutions that are related to this kind of work through the moves made by these institutions, in addition to the list of references and resources that were consulted through the report.