1. Definitions and data collection on adult learning and education
	Yes	No
1.1 Does your country have an official definition of adult education? If Yes, please provide it in the space below: Adult education is divided into formal education, vocational education and informal education: Formal education obtained within the adult education system allows adults to acquire basic and general secondary education at adult upper secondary schools through distance learning, evening courses or external study and higher education at universities through part time study. Vocational education allow adults to acquire and improve their professional, occupational and speciality knowledge, skills and experience as well as to retrain themselves. Informal education allow students to develop their creativity, talents and social skills.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.1.1 Are other definitions used in practice? If Yes, please provide them in the space below:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
1.2 Has your country adopted or developed an official definition of literacy? If Yes, please provide it in the space below:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
1.2.1 Are other definitions used in practice? If Yes, please provide them in the space below:	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

1.6 Please provide any additional information, explanations or comments that you consider relevant in order to clarify any potential issues regarding the information in this section.

Illiteracy is not a problem in Estonia for centuries. In the period 1995-2005 adult literacy rate (% of those aged 15 and older) was 99.8 in Estonia, what puts us on the second/third place (sharing it with Cuba) after Georgia in the world. This is the reason, why Estonia is not making special efforts in the field of literacy.

2. Policy: political commitment to adult education and adult literacy

7.2 Is there any innovative experience in adult education and/or adult literacy that has been developed in your country since 2009 (CONFINTEA VI) that could be instructive for other countries? If yes, provide a brief description and references.

I During the years 2010 - 2011 special attention was put into the media programmes. The following events were initiated, advocating adult learning and education:

- 1) Short video clips were presented at the National TV - "Why I learn?" in prime time, before the main news. All people participating in these video clips were politicians, artists or other public persons.
- 2) January 2010 - May 2011 every saturday evening a 1/2 hour show on adult and lifelong learning was presented on the National TV, leaded by a famous artist.
- 3) Once in month the National radio station presented interviews with well known people about adult education and lifelong learning, promoting adult learning.

II Publications:

2010 - 2011 a journal "Öpitrepp" (The Learning Staircase) was published.

III Every year Adult Learning Week was provided.

IV The following networks were initiated:

- 1) Adult Learners' Network
- 2) Network of key persons (30 people - two from each region) organising the preparatory work and provision Adult Learners' Week.
