Global Alliance to Monitor Learning (GAML): Rules for voting

August 2019

Rules for voting by the Global Alliance to Monitor Learning (GAML)

1. Decisions of the GAML are made on the basis of consensus among its members.
2. If there is no consensus among GAML members, a majority decision shall be taken based on the votes of all members.
3. Each Member State and Member Organisation has one vote.
4. Decisions of the GAML shall be taken by a simple majority of the members present and voting, except where otherwise specified in these rules.
5. For decisions about modification, retention or deletion of indicators, a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting is required.
6. For the purpose of determining the majority, only members casting an affirmative or negative vote shall be counted as “present and voting”.
7. Members who abstain from voting shall be considered as not voting.
