Aħna wkoll naqblu li l-Ghana għandha tkun parti mill-Lista tal-Wirt Kulturali Intangibbli tal-Umanita' tal-UNESCO.

10th January 2020

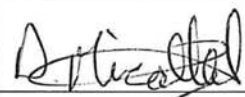

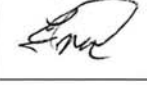

We, the 'Santa Liena' Music Organisation, known as tal-Bagri in Birkirkara, organise Għana themed evenings throughout the year. Għana in the band club is a means whereby the club's society as well as the community, both local and from other localities around Malta, get to meet. During these evenings, the 'għannejja', or għana singers, express their ideas, through Maltese għana. A good amount of għannejja and musicians meet here. These consist of a mixture of established musicians and singers as well as new ones who are of a younger age. We hope that this tradition will continue to pass down between generations.

We feel that the Maltese Għana is an essential part of our Maltese Cultural Heritage. We want Għana to be more appreciated and recognised and therefore we organise these evenings to keep the tradition alive.

We all agree that Għana should be part of the UNESCO Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage.

MAFKAR F'ĠIEH ŻARU L-GĦANNEJ 1934 - 2001

Aħna grupp ta' nies li nipprattikaw kif ukoll insegwu l-Għana Maltija. Bħala nies li nħobbu dan il-generu ta' mużika ħadna l-inizzjattiva li bħala rikonoxximent lejn l-Għana Maltija nagħtu ġieh lil wieħed mill-aqwa għannejja li kellna f'Malta, Żaru l-għannej (Rosario Mifsud) li miet fis-26 ta' Frar 2001 fl-eta' ta' 67 sena. Għalhekk fil-5 ta' Mejju 2019 ser ninawguraw mafkar f'ġieh dan l-għannej famuż ġewwa r-raħal ta' Ħal-Għaxaq.

Żaru kien għannej prim Għaxqi, u kien jgħanni kull tip ta' Ghana fosthom Spirtu Pront, Makkjetti u Fatti. Żaru kien imfaħħar minn kulħadd u kien t'inspirazzjoni għal kull min jgħanni miegħu . Kellu leħnu sabiħ u kien jaqbad tajjeb mal-kitarri. Kien jgħanni ma' kwalunkwe daqq ta' kitarra u melodija ta' l-Għana.

Bħala għannejja Maltin u dilettranti ta' l-Għana, nixtiequ li l-Għana Maltija tkun rikonoxxuta bħala parti essenzjali mill-Kultura Maltija. Aħna nixtiequ li din it-tradizzjoni tal-Għana tkun imħarsa u titpoġġa fuq il-lista rappresentattiva tal-UNESCO għal-Wirt Kulturali Intanġibbli tal-Umanita'.

Għalhekk qegħdin niffirmaw hawn taħt biex nuru l-approvazzjoni tagħna favur ta' din l-inizzjattiva dwar l-Għana Maltija.

MEMORIAL HONORING ŻARU THE GĦANNEJ 1934 - 2001

We are a group of persons who practise as well as follow Maltese Għana. As people who love this genre of music, we have taken the initiative that as recognition towards Maltese Għana we honour one of the best 'għannejja' (singer of għana) that we've ever had in Malta, 'Żaru l-Għannej' (Rosario Mifsud) who died in February 2001 at the age of 67 years. We will therefore inaugurate a memorial in the village of Għaxaq in honour of this famous għannej.

Żaru was a principal għannej from Għaxaq, and he would sing every type of Għana, including 'Spirtu Pront', 'Makkjetti', and 'Fatti'. Żaru was praised by everyone and he was of inspiration to whoever sang with him. He had a beautiful voice and he was very talented at syncing his voice with the guitars. He sang with any type of music being played by the guitar and to any Għana melody.

As Maltese għannejja and amateurs of Għana, we would like Maltese Għana to be recognised as an essential part of Maltese Culture. We wish for this tradition of Għana to be protected and placed within the UNESCO Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

We are therefore signing our names hereunder to show our approval in favour of this initiative regarding Maltese Għana.

Applikazzjoni biex l-Ghana jkun parti mil-Lista Rappreżentattiva tal-Wirt Kulturali Intangibbli tal-UNESCO

Jiena Charles Coleiro, Membru (a) tal-Kumitat Festi Nazzjonali (b) tal-Akkademja tal-Malti u Promutur tal-Folklor u t-Tradizzjonijiet ta' pajjiżna bil-Kitba u l-Preżentazzjoni fil-Midja Soċjali fosthom ix-Xandir qed inressaq it-talba tiegħi biex l-Ghana tradizzjonali jkun magħruf uffiċjalment bħala Wirt Kulturali Intangibbli.

Mill-ħajja soċjo-kulturali ta' pajjiżna tajt sehmi bħala Uffiċjal għar-Relazzjonijiet Pubbliċi mal-Ministeru tat-Turiżmu bejn 1972 u 1986 biex fil-promozzjoni f'pajjiżi barranin organizzajt il-"Maltese Evenings" għall-Aġenti tal-Ivvjaġġar fejn stedint lill-għannejja ta' fama bħal Mikiel Abela (Il-Bambinu) u Frans Baldacchino (Il-Budaj) flimkien ma' grupp ta' kitarri biex isemmgħu l-Ghana waqt dawn l-Iljeli Maltin. Serata minnhom saret fil-Commonwealth Institute, Londra

Kburi li kont l-ewwel wiehed li ippreżentajt aktar minn sensiela waħda dwar l-Ghana fuq l-istazzjon nazzjonali tat-televiżjoni u tkellimt kemm-il darba f'Seminars u laqgħat soċjali kemm f'Malta kif ukoll barra minn Malta.

F1-2015 ġejt mogħti mill-Istat fil-preżenza tal-E.T Marie Louise Coleiro Preca, il-Midalja għall-Qadi tar-Repubblika b'apprezzament għat-twettiq u l-promozzjoni tal-kultura u l-identita' nazzjonali ta' pajjiżna.

Minhabba li l-Għana hu wirt nazzjonali u jagħti identita' fil-ħajja tal-poplu Malti naqbel li għandu jkun magħruf bħala Wirt Kulturali Intangibbli u jiġi magħdud fil-Lista Rappreżentattiva tal-UNESCO.

10th March 2020

I, Charles Coleiro, member of (a) the National Feast Committee, and (b) the Maltese Academy and also promoter of Maltese folklore and traditions with writings and presentations on social media including broadcasting, am hereby putting forward my call to have traditional Għana officially known as Intangible Cultural Heritage.

From the socio-cultural life of our country I gave my contribution as a public relations official with the Ministry of Tourism between 1972 and 1986 where during the promotion in foreign countries I organised 'Maltese Evenings' for travel agents and I invited such famous 'għannejja' (għana singers) as Mikiel Abela (il-Bambinu) and Frans Baldacchino (il-Budaj) together with a group of guitarists to play Għana during these events. One of these 'Evenings' was at the Commonwealth Institute in London.

Furthermore, I invited the celebrated Frans Baldacchino (il-Budaj) and Karmenu Bonniċi (il-Bahri) to take part in the Mediterranean Folklore Festival of Paris and Marseille organised by the Alliance Francaise. This group's contribution made quite an impression with the organisers that in the Paris Festival they kept it for an extra day to record an Għana CD that was held at the theatre in Paris.

During a National Evening when Colonel Gaddafi was on a state visit in Malta I was asked by Prime Minister Dom Mintoff to choose an 'għannej' (il-Bambinu) who took part in that 'Evening' a Malta's national theatre, the Manoel.

During the activity "Żejt iż-Żejtun" that I present every year, Għana occupies the top place in the programmes that are held and it is the final activity which closes the activities, with the largest crowd up until last year gathering to listen to the Għana.

I had the opportunity to bring in għana during the Evening honouring Dun Karm, the national poet, at the San Anton Palace in the presence of the President of Malta, Dr George Vella. The two occasions were held during the 1998 and 1999 programmes.

During the activities to commemorate 100 years from the June uprisings (1919-2019) I wrote stanzas about 'Għana tal-Fatt' which were interpreted by Ġużeppi Spagnol.

I am proud to have been the first one to present more than one series about Għana on the national television station and I spoke about the topic many times during seminars and social meetings both in Malta and abroad.

In 2015 I was awarded by the State, the Medal for Services to the Republic with appreciation for my involvement and promotion of culture and the national identity of our country, in the presence of her excellency, Marie Louise Coleiro Preca.

Because Għana is a national heritage and gives identity to the life of the people of Malta, I agree that it should be known as an Intangible Cultural Heritage and finds its place in the UNESCO Representative List.

Nominazzjoni għall-Għana Malti biex titniżżel fil-Lista Rappreżenattiva tal-Wirt Kulturali Intangibbli tal-UNESCO

Jiena Zeppi Spagnol, bdejt ngħanni waħdi, kont ngħaddi minn hdejn il-ħanut ta' Ġulin ta' Kustanza fiż-Żejtun, fejn kienet issir l-Għana fis-snin ħamsin u erbghin, u kienet togħgobni. Imbagħad meta kbirt ffit bdejt indoqq għand Ġulin ta' Kustanza. Il-ħwienet fiż-Żejtun mill-pjazza 'l isfel, f'dawk iż-żminijet kollha kien ikollhom l-Għana. Wara bdejt ngħanni jien ukoll fil-ħwienet, kif ukoll fil-Karnival ta' Ħal-Għaxaq u fl-Imnarja. Il-mara tiegħi Rose Spagnol, ukoll tgħanni, l-Għana tal-Banju, u t-tifla Janice Debono kienet tgħanni u ddoqq il-kitarra imma waqfet minħabba l-familja. It-tifel tiegħi Kevin Spagnol huwa wkoll Prim Kitarrist.

Jien nippreferi l-fattijiet għax inħossni aktar addattat għall-fatt milli għall-Ispirtu Pront. Biex tikteb fatt l-ewwel trid tagħmel riċerka ta' storja, għax fatt irid ikun ibbażat fuq fatti vera. Fatt ma niktbox f'darba, imma nibqa' nirranga fiha u naf indum gimgħa ndawwar fil-kliem. Għamilt fatti twal, anke sa siegħa imma normalment idumu sa xi nofs siegħa. Fatt normalment jitgħanna minn għannej wieħed fuq tliet kordi – sol, la u do, fuq kitarra tal-prejjem.

Jien naħseb li l-Għana f'Malta tibqa', għalkemm mhux kull min għandu t-talent ta' l-għana moħbi go fiħ, ikun kapaci joħorgu. Imma nemmen li t-talent ikun diġa ġol-persuna; tista titgħallem tesprimiha imma jekk ma' tkunx go fik għalxejn. L-aktar haġa mportanti li għannej jidra huwa kif jaqbad mal-kitarri, l-għana ma' tistax tisma' l-kitarri għalihom mhux f'sinkronizzazzjoni mal-għannej, għax ma jinstemax sabiħ.

Nixtiequ ħafna li din it-tradizzjoni Maltija tkun rikonoxxuta.

25th February 2020

I Żepi Spagnol, started singing għana on my own. I used to pass by Ġulin ta' Kustanza's bar in Żejtun, where they used to sing Għana in the forties and fifties, and I used to like it. Then when I grew up I started playing at Ġulin ta' Kustanza's. All the bars in Żejtun south of the square, would have Għana in those days. After I too started singing għana in the bars and during Carnival in Għaxaq and during the feast of St Peter and St Paul (l-Imnarja). My wife Rose Spagnol, also sings Għana in the Bathroom, and my daughter Janice Debono used to sing and play the guitar but she stopped because of having a family. My son Kevin Spagnol is also a Principal Guitarist.

I prefer the 'Fatti' type of għana because I feel more adept at that type than the 'Spirtu Pront' style. To write a Fatt you first have to research the story, because as the name implies the Fatt is based on real Facts. I do not write a Fatt in one sitting, I keep editing and I can take up to a week changing the words. I have written long 'Fatti', even of a whole hour, but normally they last about half an hour. The 'Fatt' is usually sung by a solo għana singer on three chords - sol, la and do, on a 'prejjem' guitar.

I think that in Malta Għana will remain, even though not everyone who has the talent for għana hidden inside him, is able to express it. But I believe that talent has to be present in the person; you can learn to express it but if it is not already within you, it's useless. The most important thing that an għana singer needs to get used to is how to agree with the guitars, in għana you cannot hear the guitars on their own, not in sync with the singer, because it won't sound nice.

There are also those that only write 'l-Għana tal-Fatt' and doesn't sing; and to write Għana you have to be a poet. For a piece of 'Għana tal-Fatt' to be good it has to touch your heart. If I myself, don't feel like I'm about to cry when I sing it, I don't feel that it was a good piece.

Attached to this letter please find a piece of 'Għana tal-Fatt' which I wrote about this UNESCO application.

We strongly hope that this Maltese tradition gets recognition.

Thank you,

SB

Verses by Zeppi Spagniol regarding UNESCO

Here I am, writing these verses
It won't take me too much time
I will send them to UNESCO
They are known throughout the world

I am certain that Ghana will continue
I can't be stopped,
When I die there'll be another
It will surely never die

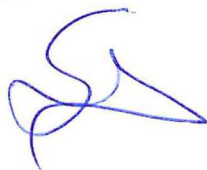

Ghana is a gift to mankind
It's a talent that brings joy,
I intend to keep on singing
As long as I am alive

It is the way of the world
You know it's always been,
What is left by those before us
Needs to be left one more time

I'm enthusiastic about Ghana
It's a pastime that I love
I will leave behind me written
That I want Ghana when I die.

Translator's note: no effort has been made to retain the beautiful rhyming pattern of this 'ghanja' in an attempt to preserve as much of the meaning of the original words as possible, without them being lost too much in translation.

Application for Għana to be put forward and recognised as an Intangible Cultural Heritage in the UNESCO Representative List.

I, Michael Cumbo, veteran għana singer, have been practicing Għana for over fifty years. I attend various għana evenings around Malta and Gozo, and I also organise evenings amongst friends in my own home. I feel that Għana is an essential part of Maltese culture and I hope that it will continue to be inherited from generation to generation. My son Vince Cumbo also sings, and sometimes we sing together during the għana evenings.

I wish that Għana will be accepted as an Intangible Cultural Heritage in the UNESCO Representative List.

Applikazzjoni biex l-Ghana tiġi mressqa għal-Lista Rapreżentattiva tal-UNESCO

Jiena Lawrence ta' Ġanna, jisimni propjament Lawrence Schembri. Jien fil-bidu kont nilqa' n-nies għall-Ghana fid-dar tiegħi stess fiż-Żejtun. Meta żdiedu hafna n-nies iddecidejt li niftah hanut fiż-Żejtun stess. Domt bil-hanut 27 sena bil-hanut u rtirajt xi 3 snin ilu.

Fil-hanut, 'Ta' Ġanna Bar', dejjem ikun hemm konkorenza kbira għal dawn l-attivitajiet. Kienu wkoll jiġu diversi nies mill-Universita' ta' Malta u antropologi barranin interessati fl-Ghana. Hadu nteress ukoll proġetti tal-Kultura tal Valletta 18 – Belt Ewropeja tal-Kultura li kien jismu 'Transparadiso', li rebaħ anke kompetizzjonijiet barra minn Malta.

L-għannejja kienu jfittxu sew il-hanut tiegħi, u kienu jqattgħu siegħat shaħ hemmhekk, speċjalment il-Ħadd filgħodu. L-Ghana xi drabi kienet tishon fl-argument, minhabba li ġieli kienu jsiru botti personali u ġieli anke nqala' xi argument.

Jiena nħoss li l-Ghana hija parti mill-Kultura Maltija u ninsab kuntent li l-applikazzjoni tal-Ghana ser tiġi mressqa għal-Lista Rapreżentattiva tal-UNESCO.

Application for Ġhana to be nominated for inclusion in the UNESCO Representative List

I am Lawrence ta' Ġanna, but my official name is Lawrence Schembri. At first I used to welcome people for Ġhana events at my own house in Żejtun. When the number of people attending grew very much I decided to open a place, also in Żejtun. I ran that bar for 27 years and retired around 3 years ago.

In the bar, Ta' Ġanna Bar, there is always a great attendance to these events. Several people also came from the University of Malta and foreign anthropologists because they were interested in Ġhana. There was also interest from projects forming part of Valletta 18 - European Capital of Culture with the name 'Transparadiso', which even won competitions abroad.

My bar was always sought after by Ġhannejja (għana singers), and they would spend several hours there, especially on Sunday mornings. At times the Ġhana would heat up into an argument, because of the use of insults of a personal nature.

I feel that Ġhana is part of Maltese culture and am quite happy that an application is going to be presented for Ġhana to be included in UNESCO's Representative List.

Thank you beforehand,

I am Charles Seychell and I love Maltese traditions very much, among which is Għana. During the year I hold various appointments and activities of Maltese traditions including Għana and poetry. In fact, Għana and poetry are two elements that go well together because they are related.

As an Għana organiser, I put up Għana evenings every year at 'Ġnien I-Għannejja' (the Għana Garden) around the month of July, where there are various għannejja (għana singers) and guitarists taking part. All this takes place in aid of a house for people with special needs who end up on their own. Before the Għana 'evening', these people also participate in workshops about Għana.

I too, as an Għana enthusiast, was present for various consultations that were organised by the Culture Directorate.

I agree that Għana should be nominated to be part of the UNESCO Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage because I believe that it is a very important Maltese tradition.

Issa ili zmien twil nipprattika biss din it-tradizzjoni tal-bini tal-kitarri u għadni sejjer sa llum il-ġurnata.

Naħdem tipi differenti ta' kitarri. Dawn huma Terzin, Terzin tat-tromba, Mandola u Ballerina. Il-material użat biex tinbena kitarra huma il- Fraxxnu, il-Kewba tal-abjad jew tal-aħmar li tintuza għall-manku (neck). Nuża ukoll il-'boiler' biex bil-fwar l-injam jirtab u jkun jista jinħadem u jitgħawweg skond il-forma tal-kitarra.

Illum jiena naħdem min ġewwa l-garaxx li għandi fiż-Żejtun fejn ta' kuljum niltaqa ma diversi għanejja u kitarristi li jigu għandi biex jirrangaw jew jordnaw xi kitarra ġdida.

Ghana Nomination to the UNESCO list which represents the intangible elements of the Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

I, George Azzopardi, make the guitars that are used in Ghana. At eighteen years old I worked at the dockyards. When I got home from work I would try to fix or build a guitar. I learned everything about building guitars by trial and error and through the questions I used to ask.

Now It's been a long time that I have been practising this activity exclusively, I build guitars to this very day.

I work on different types of guitars. These are Terzin, Terzin tat-tromba, Mandola and Ballerina. The materials used to construct a guitar are ash and light or dark mahogany for the neck. I also use a boiler to soften the wood on the steam to be able to bend it according to the shape of the guitar.

Today I work from the garage that I have in Zejtun where I meet various Ghana singers and guitarists on a daily basis who want to either want to have their guitar fixed or to order a new one.

I strongly agree that we should nominate Ghana to be part of the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage, because I believe that this is a very important Maltese tradition.

To Whom It May Concern

We have taken over Ta' Ġanna Bar from 3 years ago, since the previous owner retired of old age. We have always known the potential of this Bar, and as being an Għana Hub for many years renowned all over the Maltese Islands as well as from foreigners who are interested in local heritage. As Għana followers and enthusiasts we took the opportunity to take over this place to continue to safeguard the Għana practice in Malta. It would have been a national loss if this place closed down.

I can easily declare that all Għanejja in Malta have one day or another performed at 'Ta' Gianna Bar', throughout all the years it has been opened to Għana activity.

We commit to ensure that Għana remains popular in Malta, and keep promoting Għana as an important Intangible Cultural Heritage element of our Maltese Culture.

We strongly agree that Għana be enlisted on the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of UNESCO.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Floriana Local Council, for and on behalf of the people of Floriana would like to wholeheartedly support Malta's application for the inscription of Għana in the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Għana is an important part of our lives and part of Malta's heritage. It has been practiced in Malta for countless generations.

Even though Floriana does not have residents who are known Għannejja (Għana singers) our locality has been proudly hosting and actively involved in the national Għana Festival, known as GĦANAFEST since its inception thirteen years ago. 'Għanafest' is a two-day music festival which takes place every year in June in the marvellous surroundings of Argotti Gardens here in Floriana.

This Festival strives to uphold Għana as our national folk singing and at the same time also converges different soundscapes and cultures that look seemingly disparate but are indeed closer than one may think. In this regard, Maltese tradition upholds to its roots, while like a tree branches to more avant-gardist art forms, ultimately fitting our history and affinity with the national image and the ever-changing pace of folk itself.

Many people come to appreciate this important musical heritage of the Maltese Islands. Inscription into the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity would give due recognition to what we feel is an important Maltese contribution to global cultural heritage.

Għana is an important part of our lives and part of Malta's heritage. It has been practiced in Malta for countless generations in a tradition that has been kept alive by the community. Għana for us is important because it gives us identity together with other things such as traditional nicknames given to residents similarly to the family tree roots.

At Rabat, Malta Għana has been recited for such a long time as a recreational tradition especially in old bars and in other occasions associated with national public holidays e.g. Victory Day, St Mary Feast, etc amongst the elderly and young youths. Għana has been organised in Rabat especially during the summer months in important strategic places such as Parish Square and is a magnet to inquisitive tourists.

Dear Sir/Madam,

We would like to wholeheartedly support Malta's application for the inscription of Ghana in the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Ghana is an important part of our lives and part of Malta's heritage. It has been practiced in Malta for countless generations in a tradition that has been kept alive by the community. Locally Ghana is practised by a number of individuals on a regular basis, to the extent that there is even a sub-type of Ghana known as Ghana La Bormliza which is nationally recognized and which originated in Bormla as the name itself suggests.

Throughout the year a number of events having Ghana as their main point of attraction are organized in the locality.

Many people come to appreciate and appreciate this important musical heritage of the Maltese Islands. Inscription into the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity would give due recognition to what we feel is an important Maltese contribution to global cultural heritage.

To whom it may concern,

Trust this mail finds you all in good health.

Kindly I wish to participate with this application for the inscription of Għana as a Maltese Folk Music to be enlisted in the UNESCO representative List of Intangible Culture Heritage of Humanity.

As a folk group we support our intangible heritage in our locality of Żejtun. Għana is a very pleasant folk music which most of our villages host during the year. It's part of the Maltese Heritage which it's practiced in Malta for countless generations in a traditional way.

Għana is admired with all generations where you find elderly person singing and bring very important stories to us through this folk music, while younger generations participate in other way of folk music.

As a community we have a national local activity 'Zejt iz-Zejtun' during the last week of September, where our folk singers participate and we as a folk organization assist them, through this well known activity. Our Folk singer participates for the whole evening from 7.00pm to 1.00am. This is our 13th year of participation in our village core within folk traditional costumes and traditional artisan and traditional Maltese Food.

All this is appreciated with everyone as this is part of our traditional music in an intangible Cultural Heritage.

I appreciate if you could consider our application and invite you all to visit this wonderful folk festival and I'm sure you would admire our Maltese Folk Musical in Malta.

NOMINATION OF MALTESE GHANA FOR UNESCO RECOGNITION

The Beland Band Musical Society was founded in 1861. The Beland title goes back to the time of Grandmaster von Hompesch, where it is understood that the Society was named after the Grandmaster's mother, Isabella von Byalandt.

Apart from its function of musical education, it also creates a Community Organisation. The Society appreciates traditions that go beyond the playing of the band. We are therefore using new elements like Ghana to create a link to the appreciation of Culture.

For this first time, this year, during the Good Friday celebrations there will be an activity dedicated to 'Ghana tal-Fatt', with the title 'Song of the greatest Story, according to St Peter' with words written by Trevor Żahra, a veteran author of Maltese literature, and sung by Anġlu Theuma, a distinct Ghana singer. This will also be recorded and distributed on CD. This initiative is being taken to amplify our understanding of Maltese traditions, and we would be happy to see other Societies do the same.

Ghana was also part of the Beland Festival that serves as a platform for new talent and musical variety. In our club we also organise a few evenings dedicated to Ghana, from a group of singers in the community. I believe that we should integrate Ghana further in the community to strengthen our countries cultural traditions.

We firmly support the application of Maltese Ghana to be recognised by UNESCO and be listed in the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Thanking you beforehand,

Letter of support for the nomination of Ghana, traditional Maltese folksong to the UNESCO
'Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity'

The University of Malta has long been involved in the safeguarding of this element by means of promoting and disseminating research about the element. The Department of Anthropological Sciences has been supporting the implementation of the ICH Convention in Malta since its adoption in Malta through the establishment of educational programs designed to familiarize students and train professionals in the field. With regards to the Ghana file, the department in collaboration with the Ministry of the National Heritage, the Arts and Local Government has undertaken different projects with the aim of supporting the safeguarding of the element. Over and above research undertaken by our students in order to address specific areas as driven by community needs, the Department has set up an internship program for our students to work with the community and the Ministry in order to facilitate dissemination and consultation. The Department will also be pioneering an educational program in 2020/21 aiming to provide alternate means of transmission of the element whereby members of the community will be paid to teach the element to aspiring youth in a socio-economically disadvantaged area in the Inner Harbour Region utilizing University facilities and resources.

The Department of Anthropological Sciences wholeheartedly support the nomination of Ghana and believe that the successful inscription of the list will help in disseminating awareness and knowledge about ICH in general among the Maltese Islands as well as assisting in the implementation of further safeguarding initiatives in this regards. Maltese folksong is an important feature of our Mediterranean and global heritage with unique features. Its inscription will further serve to recognize the importance of popular oral traditions in national and global culture.

To whom it may concern

The feast of Santa Marija in mid-August has been celebrated at Gozo Cathedral since at least 1398. For the celebration on fourteenth and fifteenth August, according to a Diary for the year 1738 kept by Giuseppe Agius, an erudite Gozitan, per essa si concorre mezzo popolo di Malta ad onorarla, one half of the people of Malta travel to Gozo to honour Santa Marija. Another contemporary source concurs that un gran concorso de' forestieri, crowds of visitors, joined the Gozitans for the festivity.

Gozo pulled the crowds for four reasons. The religious festivities were known for their splendour and solemnity. One of the most famous donkey, mule, and horse races of the Maltese islands took place in the afternoon of the fifteenth. Another attraction gained ground in the first quarter of the eighteenth century. The farming community took the opportunity of the crowds to display and retail tutti i frutti desiderabili et altre cose di galanteria, that is, crops and other exquisite products, possibly handicrafts and local confectionary along the glaxis of Iċ-Ċittadella leading to the Church. It became known as Il-Wirja ta' Santa Marija.

A fourth attraction developed in concomitance with this agricultural exhibition. The farmers – satisfied with their premium products which were simply grabbed by the visitors – broke out in spontaneous singing, in għana. In this unscripted folk-singing, they recounted the difficulties that they had gone through during the year in producing their crops. They described their day-to-day life on their farm recounting a number of anecdotes to entertain the audience. They would extol their produce inviting passers-by to try their goods.

Almost three hundred years since the Wirja is documented and since the related għana became part and parcel of the event, the tradition is still going strong. Every year, on the evening of the fourteenth August, there is an għana competition at the Wirja, now held on professional basis at the Rundle Gardens in Victoria.

Heritage Malta's endorsement for the Inscription of Għana in the UNESCO Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity

Maltese folk music Għana has been practiced in Malta for countless generations. It basically consists of extemporised singing by folk singers from Malta and Gozo and played in octosyllabic quatrains to the accompaniment of guitar playing, generally a trio of illiterate and semi-literate musicians. They perform in the various għana programmes organised by the għannejja themselves in wine shops and village celebrations for the enjoyment of the local community and the public in general.

In all cases, singers put the highest value on originality, self-expression, relevant content of the impromptu, and language manipulation at the expense of the opponent, rather than on the melodic line or rhythm. The theme during singing sessions is generally discovered and developed by the singers in the course of the introduction to their song duel, with each performer bent on outdoing his opponent in general knowledge, wit, and humour. It can vary from the informally amiable singing between friends, to almost hostile challenges in wine bars. Għana is the most popular and highly developed ritualised form of singing, revolving around values at the core of contemporary Maltese society, exposing its contradictions and tensions.

It is in this light that Heritage Malta, as the Maltese government's national agency for cultural heritage, fully supports the inclusion of Għana Maltese folk music in UNESCO's Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage, since we feel it is an important Maltese contribution to global cultural heritage.

Dear Sir/Madam,

On behalf of Festivals Malta, I would like to wholeheartedly support Malta's application for the inscription of Ghana in the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

Ghana is an important part of our lives and part of Malta's heritage. It has been practiced in Malta for countless generations in a tradition that has been kept alive by the community, as an integral part of the Maltese folkloristic identity. Starting out as a form of entertainment for housewives and the working class during the era of the Knights of Saint John, Ghana has since seen a gradual evolution through history, developing more formal constraints when it comes to its rhyme and rhythm. Still popular around bars, villages and local feasts, Ghana is now practiced by professional singers called ghannejja (singer of ghana, plural), who sing about their experiences, turbulent times and about other singers, usually in the form of a duel. One of the most common forms of Ghana is called Spiritu Pront, where the ghannej (singer of ghana, singular) creates rhymes on the spot, often accompanied by the guitar or traditional folkloristic instruments.

As an agency, we strive to preserve Ghana, by giving it the recognition it deserves and investing in its regeneration. For the last 22 years, we have been hosting Ghanafest, an annual festival that takes place in June, which celebrates and showcases Ghana and other Maltese traditions. During this festival, the ghannejja perform ghana in all its different forms. In an effort to keep this heritage alive, we have also embarked on a three-year project with 'Skald', a local acoustic folk fusion band, that blends ghana with other music genres that are more appealing to the younger generation. This year 'Skald' are reaping the fruits of this collaboration as they will be launching their first album during this year's edition of the festival. Ghanafest helps us make ghana accessible to a wider audience by taking it out of the village bars and pjazzas so that it can be enjoyed and appreciated by locals and tourists alike.

Many people come to appreciate this important musical heritage of the Maltese Islands. We strongly believe that inscription into the Representative List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity would give due recognition to what we feel is an important Maltese contribution to global cultural heritage.

Kind Regards,

Annabelle Stivala
