

The challenge of inclusion in learning cities, building on work for the Fourth International Conference on Learning Cities

Medellin Learning City

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO Institute
for Lifelong Learning

Alcaldía de Medellín

Colombia in America

2018 Population

45.500.000
inhabitants

Antioquia in Colombia

2018 Population

4,6 millions
inhabitants

Valle de Aburra Metropolitan area

2018 Population

3,7 millions
inhabitants

Medellin in the Metropolitan area

2018 Population

2,5 millions
inhabitants

Education.

Line in the development plan with the highest investment

Increase 18%

$4,36

2016
2019

$ 6,2

2020
2023

Amounts in millions of COP

Students with disabilities

10.348

Guarantee access, permanence and quality in education for people with disabilities, from initial to secondary education.

Minors in sick condition

1.972

With home care: 25 Attention in Educational Institution:
1.474 Support institution care: 129
In hospital classroom: 344

Children under 18 years of age, students of the levels of Initial, Preschool, Basic and Middle Education with characteristics established by Law 1384 and 1388 of 2010.

Alcaldía de Medellín

Students in need of international protection

25.659

Children and adolescents found to be within Colombian territory, regardless of their nationality or immigration status.

Alcaldía de Medellín

Ser + STEM and Diversity

Women empowerment
through Ser+STEM

UNESCO Institute
for Lifelong Learning

Alcaldía de Medellín